

COLIN C. CLARKE

Professor Colin Campbell Clarke (1932-1936) received a 1st class Honours degree from Balliol College in 1948.

In his final year at Hale, Colin was Dux of the School, a School Prefect, captain of the cricket team, a member of the football team, leader of the Debating Society, cast member of the annual dramatic production & editor of the Cygnet magazine.

A Sub-Lieutenant in the Royal Australian Naval Reserve during the war years (1941-1946), Colin went on to become a University lecturer in the UK, USA, Greece and Australia.

He published works on the English Romantics, particularly the fiction of D.H.Lawrence.