

FRANK B. RILEY

Frank Basil Riley
(1905-1911)

Frank attended New College (1912-1914 & 1919). An outstanding student whilst at Hale, Frank also rowed, played football and ran for the School.

In later years he became a Lieutenant in the Wiltshire Regiment in France.

In 1914, he was captured and spent four years as a prisoner of war. After the war Frank became a journalist and was killed in China in 1927 while serving as a special correspondent to the London Times.