

JOHN R. CLARKE

Dr. John Rigarlsford Clarke (1934-1942) attended St John's College between 1947 and 1950 receiving a Doctorate in Philosophy.

Appointed Captain of Hale School in his final year, John was also awarded Colours in swimming and athletics. He represented Hale in debating and was a member of the Cygnet magazine committee.

Dr Clarke went on to become a lecturer and researcher within the Department of Zoology at Oxford University.