The Hon. Leslie Craig, C.M.G.

We honour the memory of the late Leslie Craig, a member of the Board of Governors of this School and for many years its Chairman. An account of his career appears in the Old Haleians' columns of this Cygnet.

It is fitting that the main oval should bear his name, because this is the physical centre of the School he loved so well and served so faithfully. Above it rise the long lines of balconied classrooms, and from it can be seen much of the spacious and beautiful grounds in which he took such pleasure.

In the planning of all this Mr. Craig worked tirelessly, and his name must be linked with those far-seeing men who were responsible for buying the Wembley Downs land.

The School is proud of the record of this great Haleian.

Mr. J. R. Prince

Three Headmasters have played their part in the Wembley era. In Dr. Buntine's time came the visionary gleam and the site was bought. Then the glory and the dream seemed to vanish; shades of war had dimmed the gleam; and Mr. Murphy felt disappointed and frustrated. Then the Vision Splendid brightened again, plans took shape, but he was denied the thrill of realisation. To Mr. Prince fell their materialisation. He came to Hale in time to throw his boundless energy into reviewing the nearly-completed plans and into the preparation for the new type of administration made necessary by the growth of the School. As a Scientist he was especially interested in the Science Block.

He immediately reorganised the House System to make it a vital influence in all aspects of a boy's development in the School. During his Headmastership more of the over-all plans became realities: the Memorial Hall, the Junior School, the Swimming Pool and Loton House. And the deserts of 1961 became the green and pleasant fields they now are. One vision remains to be realised, the Chapel.

In the years to come History will recall the physical growth that took place in Mr. Prince's regime, his administrative ability and his forceful, outspoken criticism of what he felt was wrong in the life of the School and of the community at large.

Dr. K. G. Tregonning

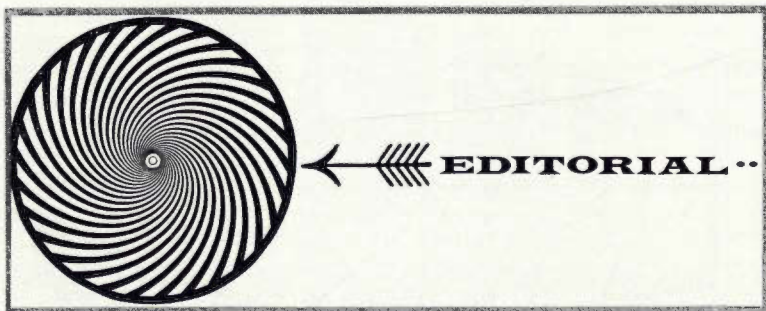

It is with great expectation that we look forward to the arrival of our new Headmaster Dr. Kennedy Gordon Tregonning for the start of the school year of 1967, to continue the work so ably commenced.

Dr. Tregonning is a man of considerable academic attainments, and of great strength of character. As a boy at this school from 1936 to 1941, he distinguished himself not only in the classroom, but also on the playing fields and in other phases of school life. In 1942 he entered the RAAF and saw service over Europe.

After the war he obtained an Arts Degree at Adelaide University, and later lectured there in History. Subsequently, at Oxford University he obtained the degree of Bachelor of Literature, and later received a Doctorate of Philosophy. He is the author of a number of books on the history and political development of South East Asia.

Since his appointment he has been in close contact with the school, and has been preparing himself for his new career in the continuing development of Hale.

To Dr. Tregonning, his wife and young family we wish the best of good fortune, and hope that as the Headmaster of Hale School he will gain great personal satisfaction from his entry into a new area of the field of Education.

A MATTER OF TRADITION

Has the time come when we should devise a new cover for Cygnet, a cover representing our Old Boys and Old School motto in a new light?

The words "Floreat Schola Perthiensis", or "May the School of Perth Flourish" first appeared on Cygnet's cover at the suggestion of Headmaster Beuttler in 1881. Over the ensuing twenty-four years, for reasons little known, Cygnet was not produced, but, when it re-appeared in 1905, Mr. Beuttler's inscription still graced the cover. History progressed and no changes were made until 1916 when the inscription was officially overruled in consequence of the formation of the School's coat of arms, which bears the motto 'Duty'.

At this stage history lets us down; evidently it was agreed that no motto had been given the official sanction of the Board of Governors, and they decided on 'Duty' as the most appropriate suggested. It would appear from the evidence at hand (further proof would be appreciated) that the Old Boys considered this a matter of tradition and stood firm with the old, in that they adopted the school badge but stuck to "Floreat Schola Perthiensis" as their motto. To further confuse our research the Cygnet continued to use the old motto until 1923 despite the fact that officially it was no longer in use!

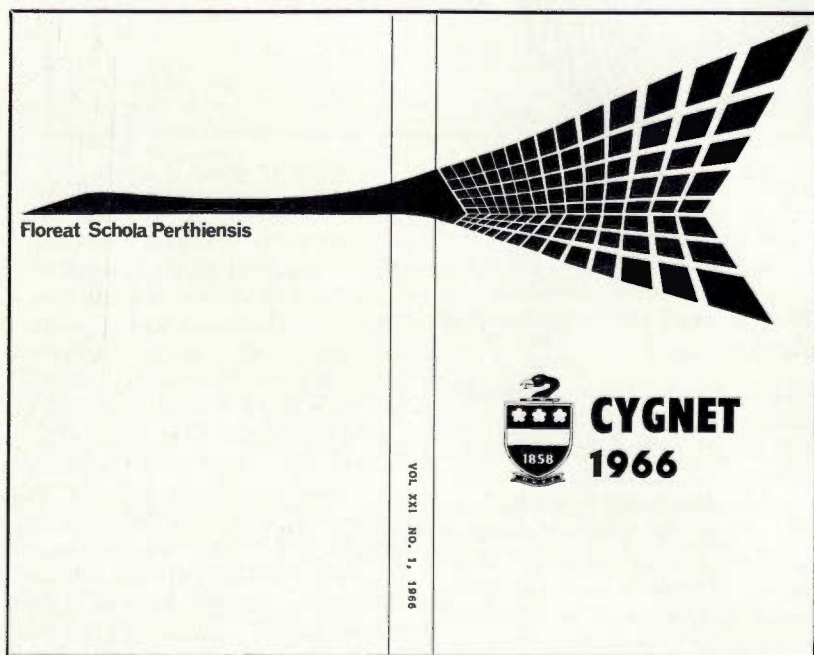

1924 saw a change to the school badge as the cover motif. This cover remained almost unaltered until 1964, and even Paul Harris's striped effort last year still showed vestiges of 1924.

In a unanimous decision the committee of 1966 agrees that a cover change should be included in the trend which has seen the internal headings change in the last two years. We have chosen a symbol which represents a matured swan reaching its ultimate performance in flight: Cygnet, the magazine, is a symbol of the boys of Hale, and the mature swan is "our school flourished" — spes nostra.

The aim of our proposal is not to destroy the traditions surrounding Cygnet, but merely to represent them in a form which reflects the atmosphere of the modern school we work in. Tradition is preserved, but the times are changing and we must move with them, and so in this form our proposal is handed over to a new committee and a new Headmaster.

FIRST TERM

T. M. Barr was appointed Captain of the School and the following were announced as Prefects: S. E. Dean, P. J. Dyson, W. G. Hodsdon and K. Y. Lee.

LOTON HOUSE

At the beginning of the year, 58 boys moved into the new Boarding House at Hale, Loton House. They moved into an environment and facilities a far cry from those of boarders of years gone by.

The name of "Loton House" will help to further the memory of the Loton family—a family long involved with the history of the State and the history of the School.

On 15th December, 1925, a stone was set by E. W. Loton, Esq. J.P., to mark the commencement of the construction of a new Boarding House at Havelock St., West Perth. Mr. E. W. Loton was then Chairman of the Board of Governors, and it was felt that this new Boarding House would overcome all the problems of overcrowding and would provide adequate facilities for study. This proved to be the case up until the war, when it became obvious that the whole school was outgrowing its accommodations.

In 1961, Hale School moved to Wembley Downs and two Boarding Houses, Faulkner House and Wilson House, were built to cater for the pleasing demands. These proved excellent in the years that followed but in 1965 it was decided to build a third Boarding House.

The stone from the Havelock St. Building was moved to the new School in Wembley, and reset by Mr. E. W. Loton's son, Sir Thorley E. Loton, K.B., on June 23rd, 1965. Sir Thorley had also been Chairman of the Board of Governors, and it was fitting that he should reset the stone, and that the house should carry the name of Loton.

At the Rower's Assembly, Mr. Ross Little presented the coxwains with their megaphones and expressed his good wishes for the crews.

Old Boys' Day, on March 7th, was the best attended since the Centenary Year. The total attendance was 225, of whom 165 attended the Annual General Meeting. The annual Cricket match resulted in a win for the School 1st XI. Ian Fallick, the team captain, won the customary Old Boys' bat for the highest score. Swimming proved most enjoyable for Old Boys and students alike, although some contestants were a little suspect in their methods. The usual keg of ginger beer rounded off an enjoyable day.

During the May holidays, the SCOTCH COLLEGE, ADELAIDE and GEELONG COLLEGE football teams visited Hale for what was a very successful carnival in all respects.

SECOND TERM

The Parents and Friends' Association held their annual general meeting.

A. K. R. Prince was appointed a Prefect.

The American National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Australian section, presented a very interesting display and demonstration of the development and future of the U.S. space effort.

Careers Night was held on July 22nd. Following the preliminaries in the school hall, all those interested adjourned to various classrooms for talks on various careers given by representatives from several companies.

The main oval was renamed the Craig Oval in honour of Mr. Leslie Craig, who had a long association with the school (see story). Other ovals were renamed in honour of Messrs. W. L. Brine and Vernon Murphy.

THIRD TERM

Brother Woodruff, headmaster of Aquinas College, presented Hale School with the Alcock Cup for football. As the team had gone through the season undefeated, all members were presented with individual trophies by Mr. K. S. Jones, President of the Old Boys' Association. At the same assembly, Mr. Jones presented Buntine House with the Interhouse Cup for rugby.

On November 9, the Old Haleians' provided the annual dinner for boys leaving school.

Speech Night was held on December 6 with the presentation of prizes being made by the Lord Mayor, Mr. Veryard.

Mr. J. R. PRINCE

At the end of 1965, Mr. J. R. Prince, who had been Headmaster for just over five years, resigned from his position at Hale.

His Headmastership covered the most difficult period of our moving from Havelock Street to Wembley Downs and the school's subsequent expansion to an enrolment of over 600 boys.

Now Mr. Prince has undertaken another difficult task as a member of the Faculty of Science in the newly-founded University of Papua and New Guinea, at Port Moresby.

We at Hale wish him every success in this challenging work.

STAFF CHANGES

The school farewelled the headmaster, Mr. J. R. Prince, at the end of 1965. Others who left were Miss L. P. Rourke, Messrs. J. D. Bambach, W. B. McEwan, J. D. Sanders and A. K. Sorenson.

Those joining the staff at the beginning of this year were: Mr. F. Constantine to teach English in the Senior and Middle schools, Mr. P. W. Davies to teach Chemistry, Economics, German and Physics in the Middle and Senior schools, Mr. J. Hockenhull to teach General Science in the Junior and Middle schools and Chemistry in the Senior school, Mr. P. A. Carey to teach English and History in the Middle school and Mr. R. Johnson to teach Woodwork.

W/O K. L. Anderson joined the staff at the beginning of third term to take over some of the duties of Mr. Marshall and to assist in maintaining general discipline around the school.

We wish a pleasant stay at Hale School for the new members of staff and, for those who have left, we wish the best of success in their future.

Speech Night

SPEECH NIGHT, 1965, was held on the 6th December in the quadrangle before the Memorial Hall. The proceedings opened with the "National Anthem", followed by a prayer offered by the School Chaplain. The Captain of the School gave his report, after which came the Headmaster's Report. The prizes and trophies were presented by the Chancellor of the University of Western Australia, Sir Alexander Reid. The formal proceedings were concluded with a vote of thanks and the Benediction. Afterwards parents were invited to inspect displays of art and woodwork in the Art Room. Suppers were served in the Dining Hall and the Administration Foyer.

Headmaster's Report

The Headmaster commenced his report by saying farewell to the school.

He then discussed two major projects towards the school's full development. The first of these was the near completion during 1965 of the third boarding house, Loton House. Secondly, he commented on the Appeal to Parents under "the dynamic leadership" of Mr. R. A. Bryce which was launched in May to raise money for the Gymnasium and extensions to the Science Buildings, adding that both of these buildings are urgently needed.

The Headmaster then commented on the Sixth Form saying that "this year of development in responsibility and in study, unfettered by examination restrictions, has again proved of great value to those who enjoyed it". He also mentioned the new Preparatory Class in the Junior School, particularly the return of Mr. and Mrs. Haskett to their place in the Junior Boarding House.

The general tone and spirit of the School had been a source of real satisfaction with generally sound discipline. Reference was made to the solid leadership of the Prefects. The Headmaster went on to say: "much of the good spirit to which the Captain of the School and I have referred stems from the keenness and the sense of responsibility which many of you Fifth Year boys have demonstrated, and I thank you for it. It is a pity that teaching you has not always been the pleasant experience it could have been, because some have failed to impose on yourselves the highest standards of self-discipline in co-operation, courtesy, punctuality and appearance. There is, admittedly, a general atmosphere of self-indulgence and indiscipline in the community at large, but we who are connected with this school should aim to rise higher. I trust that next year's Fifth Year will follow the good example of the responsible majority among you and will aim at the high standards of attainment many of you have set yourselves.

"In these respects the task in a School of this kind is undoubtedly harder than it was fifty years ago. Then the school mirrored closely the standards of society which had brought it into being, and the community as a whole would have supported the code of behaviour which the School sought to maintain. This is no longer so, for the School now finds itself setting standards which society about us is inclined to question. It is hard to imagine parents of a previous generation objecting when the School insists on a reasonable standard of hair cut, or dress, or that the boys must attend sport when they are chosen to play in a House or School team, but all these things are questioned from time to time today. And which of us altogether avoids confusing enduring principle with the things to which we are accustomed? It is not easy to be flexible in application yet firm in principle, especially in the matter of social standards where perhaps the biggest changes have come. The time has long since gone by when sport was the major distraction from work. Today, for every boy who devotes too much energy to sport, there must be three or four who devote so much of their time and interest to social life that their school work is seriously affected.

"Please do not misunderstand me. I have never subscribed to the view that the so-called 'teenager' of today is worse than any of us were at the same age. I am also quite clear that many of the opportunities for social development, available to young people today, are a good thing. But with them have come some undesirable features also, brought about by the conjunction of the 'emancipated teenager', the ready access to the motor vehicle, and the practical outcome of the existentialist philosophies of our age. In this situation it is not easy to provide the right admixture of the trust, without which an adolescent cannot develop into a responsible adult, and the supervision which the adolescent both resents and probably needs just as much as ever. In this respect, perhaps, parents need to match the description of the headmaster, whom one of my most experienced Melbourne colleagues described as "Mainly a benign conundrum with no flies on him whatever". It may help to brush a few flies off if I give parents a few of the facts I have been forced to face, both as a Headmaster and as a parent.

"First, there is a lot of teenage drinking going on in the community and it would be a foolish parent who said 'My child would not do a thing like that'. For any who need to be convinced, let me tell this true story of the night after the Inter-School Sports. This had nothing to do with the Perry Lakes party to which I will refer later. At the request of her son, the mother of a Third Year boy in one of the six Schools had arranged a party for Athletes from the various Schools and their partners, to the tune of seventy or eighty young people, and had gone to a great deal of trouble to do so. In due course, they all arrived. After about a quarter of an hour one young man said 'Where's the keg?' The lady of the house informed him that there was no keg, and that there would be no drinking at a School function in her house. Thereupon all the Fourth and Fifth Year boys left, taking their partners with them, saying that they would go where they could get drink, thus leaving the Second and Third Year boys to have what I am told became an excellent evening. That story, Ladies and Gentlemen, is fact, and I am informed that all the boys were from Public Schools' Association Schools. This story confirms three things—firstly, there are many places where young people can get liquor today; secondly, there are some who intend to go where they can do so, and thirdly, that, put in such a position, many others find they are not strong enough to stand out against the leaders of the group and so they end up doing things which neither their home, their School, nor, at the deeper level, they themselves approve. This is particularly the case when an unaccompanied group of young people get together at a holiday resort, and indeed some of our worst problems appear to have arisen first under such circumstances.

"A few facts about the Perry Lakes party will illustrate another aspect of the problem. No School was informed by the organisers that this party was to be held and no permission was sought for the tickets to be sold in the Schools or at the Inter-School Sports, although both these things were done. Most parents appeared to believe that this was a function organised by the School (that is, whichever School their child attended). Many of the School boys and girls claimed they thought this too, though I find this a little hard to understand, in the face of the fact that those who had purchased tickets saw the letters "B.Y.O.G." in the corner. For the uninitiated that means "bring your own grog", and many of those present did, in quantity. The mixture of school children, and numbers of Under 20's who have left school, with ample liquor and no really responsible mature adult in charge, must almost inevitably lead to trouble — and this function did. It is common sense, not old-fashionedness, to suggest to parents that they should not allow their school children to attend parties where there will be alcohol unless they, the parents, or someone senior in loco parentis, are going as well. It is one thing for adolescents to be present at a wedding or family occasion or other celebration where fully responsible adults are in charge. In quite a different category are the Cabarets and similar parties all too common today, and I can only advise parents to prevent their children of school age from going to them."

The headmaster went on to say that "the motor vehicle has introduced a quite new factor into the supervision of young people's social activities". He mentioned the ease with which a young fellow can take a group of friends quickly from the function he is thought to be at to a much less desirable one and the ease with which liquor may be obtained from drive-in bottle departments, but maintained that he was not opposed to boys having their driving licenses while at school. However, he went on to say that "the various temptations in the way of a seventeen year old boy who has the free use of a car at night have, to my personal knowledge, proved too much for quite a number who till then had a totally unblemished record, and, speaking as a parent, I believe we need to exercise great care.

"The extraordinarily casual forms of entertainment which have become fashionable today are another problem and perhaps the time has come to tighten up a little in some matters of etiquette connected with entertainment. I suggest that it should be normal to ask to see a ticket or invitation, and that parents should not run parties of any size without sending written invitations. If your child wishes to go to a function in a public place, I suggest you find out exactly what the function is by seeing the ticket or invitation. If it is in a home, and there is no invitation to see, it is not being unduly suspicious or discourteous to ring up the host or hostess concerned to settle any doubt in your mind. I do not believe that it is wise to arrange or allow children to attend parties after school dances or functions. Surely midnight is late enough for adolescents to leave a function and go home. Finally, I am sure that some adults should always be present when parties for young people are being held anywhere, and particularly that each of us must insist on being host and hostess in our own homes."

The Headmaster went on to discuss the Petch Report on our examination system. He mentioned the growing obsession of some employers and parents with marks to the exclusion of other qualities and hoped that the report would help to get examinations back in focus. Mention was made of the dropping of the grouping of subjects for Junior and Leaving exams thus making it possible for boys of high ability to take a particular subject a year early. However, he said that Schools should resist the temptation to push boys ahead, rather a broader educational background at the lower level should be provided. Also, the new system would enable boys whose progress might be somewhat slower than others to proceed with Fourth Year work as well as taking some Junior subjects.

In conclusion, reference was made to the questionnaires sent out to parents at the beginning of the year, many of which were returned. It was of interest that a significant number of parents criticised the School for its poor achievement in inculcating in its boys a spirit of service to the community. As an example of this lack of "community spirit", the Headmaster cited an experience he had just had. After the death of Sir Winston Churchill, he promised the organisers of the Appeal fifty boys to help with the Door-Knock. He said that only after a certain amount of dragooning, were about thirty boys provided, many of them hardly willing volunteers from the Boarding Houses.

The Headmaster concluded by saying: "this is another illustration of what I said earlier, that our boys inevitably reflect the self-indulgence and the lack of self-sacrifice which is only too characteristic of our community today. And yet, surely, we should be doing better than this. In a School which has "Duty" as its motto and which, through its membership of the Church, professes the service of God, we should all, from the youngest member to the oldest, be willing to serve the community of which we are a part. It was Jesus Christ who said 'Who ever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me'. I fear that the supreme example of sacrifice stands all too neglected because we are so busy enjoying the ample life with which modern prosperity provides us."

Captain of School's Report

1965 was a great year for Hale School in nearly all spheres, particularly in sport. How right Barry Jackson, the Captain of the school in 1963, was when he said, "I will prophesy that the next couple of years will see a marked improvement in Hale's position as a sporting school". This is true—we have shown a marked improvement, but "the best is yet to be".

Although the Prefects were not announced until the end of the first week, keenness and spirit were quickly aroused when, for the first time in many years, Hale School had a chance of winning both the swimming and tennis, which they did under the tremendous leadership of both coaches and Captains.

With great expectations for the coming term, the boys broke up for their vacation. Winter sport training had already begun; the 1st XVIII footballers gave up a week of their holidays to prepare for the coming term and both hockey and rugby teams were keeping fit by playing outside matches.

After 2½ weeks, the boys returned for a gruelling term with every team determined to do its best. The first XVIII came second only to Scotch after a season in which they had been described as the best public school team of the year. However, they ended the season on a grand note . . . a football trip to Adelaide to take part in a triangular carnival. The first XV rugby again won the Brother Redmond Cup with the 2nd XV also coming top in their competition. Although the 1st XI hockey did not come top, they showed that hockey was not a minor game in Hale School; with great determination, they had improved greatly. The term's sporting triumphs were not only due to determined efforts on the part of the boys, but also to the dedication which the masters showed by giving up several afternoons a week and inspiring the teams to victory, and to the masters concerned goes the boys' appreciation. It was good to see so many Old Boys and parents support the school, but the support of the present boys, although not bad, was somewhat lacking. Boys, if they want Hale School to rise to greater heights, must think less of themselves, think less of their outside interests, and think more of their school.

The athletics season started well when the School excelled in the State Schoolboys Cross-country Championships held in July. Having lost several individual star athletes at the end of 1964, Hale School had to build up a team with all-round strength and depth. We did well in coming fourth by only half a point.

On the cultural side of school life, Hale continued to grow. A play, "The Guinea Pig", was successfully performed, and for the first time an Interscholar dramatic festival was held.

Both Army and Navy cadets had a good year, culminating in their excellent combined marching out parade. No one really loves cadets, but when Hale School Cadets had a job to do they showed what they were capable of doing.

Thus, we have come to the end of another school year, a year in which opportunities were grasped with eagerness, but also one in which opportunities were thrown away. Boys must be willing to go out of their way to get to the top. They must not forsake their usual high standards just to "be in with the crowd". If need be, they must stand ALONE, sticking to what they believe to be right. They must aim high and not be content with second best. Although Hale School has much to offer, boys of this school must also be willing to give. Whether in first or fifth year, there is something which they could give to our great school in sport or in academic study. They must give the best in EVERYTHING they do.

Finally, I leave the school with one message, adapted from the words of the late John F. Kennedy: "Ask not what Hale School can do for you, ask what you can do for Hale School".

Examination Results

OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENTS

Richard Hartley, last year's dux, by his excellent results in academic studies, won himself numerous scholarships and prizes.

In the Science Talent Quest he shared a joint prize with Clayton Manners and claimed seven distinctions, Exhibitions in French and Mathematics as well as a General Exhibition in the Leaving and Matriculation Examinations.

Other prizes included a Commonwealth Scholarship, a B.P. Prize of 100 dollars and a Medal for the highest aggregate in Mathematics and Science, a University Prize for the highest aggregate marks in the Leaving Examination, First Prize and Medal in the Alliance Francaise and Second Prize in the Deutsch Australian Sprachverein.

Richard is at the moment at New Caledonia University taking a French Scholarship at the Lycee La Perouse.

A Scholarship to the Australian National University, Canberra, has been deferred a year. This Scholarship consists of free tuition, plus a living allowance, accommodation and fares home twice yearly. The Scholarship is directed towards an Honours Degree in the School of General Study, which is a four years' course.

Congratulations, Richard, on your wonderful achievements!

Clayton Manners, another of last year's students, won the Wesfarmers' Scholarship in Agriculture to study for a Bachelor's Degree in Agricultural Science at the University of Western Australia.

Last year he shared the Science Talent Quest with Richard Hartley. He gained his Leaving Certificate with distinctions in Maths A. and B., Chemistry and Accounting. He also passed in English, Geography and Physics.

To be eligible for the Wesfarmers' Scholarship he had to hold a Commonwealth Scholarship for payment of compulsory University Fees and enroll in the Faculty of Agriculture at the University of W.A. as a full-time student. The Scholarship was instituted in 1964 by Westralian Farmers Co-operative Limited and was first awarded in 1965.

Buntine

House Master: Terms 1 and 2 Mr. B. TOWERS

Term 3 Mr. P. A. CAREY

House Captain: W. G. HODSDON

School Prefects: W. G. HODSDON, S. E. DEAN

House Prefects: T. JEFFREY, G. C. SCOTT, R. TARIK

FIRST TERM

The year commenced on a sound footing under Mr. Towers and house prefects Stephen Dean, Geoff Hodsdon and Geoff Scott, who were appointed at the end of 1965.

At the first assembly both Steve Dean and Geoff Hodsdon were appointed School Prefects and, at the following house meeting, Geoff was made house captain. Later in the term Tim Jeffrey and Ray Tarik joined Geoff Scott as house prefects.

Stan Bosich and Greg McKay represented Buntine in the 1st XI cricket and in swimming the house was well represented by Mel Wheat, Greg Jones, Steve Scott, Bill Rowbotham, David Lilburne, Mark Skinner and Michael Davis. Geoff Hodsdon was made captain of tennis and others in the school tennis teams were Mal Hodsdon (1st IV) and Bruce Badge (Capt. 2nd IV).

In Interhouse sport Buntine fared well only in swimming, where the house finished second (490) pts. to Haynes (494) pts.).

In Senior Minor Sport we finished 7th and, as no junior teams were fielded, another competition was organised with mixed teams and this proved a successful substitute. The same procedure was carried out in junior cricket. In the senior cricket competition, Buntine finished 5th.

We didn't take part in the House Rowing fours and were in a good position to win the tennis as the end of first term approached. At the end of second term we had 17 Cock House Cup points and lay in 5th position.

SECOND TERM

The term started on a happy note following the successful Interstate Carnival during the vacation.

Hugh Thomson and Brett Goodridge both performed in the School's Drama Festival.

On the sporting side we had to improve to have any chance at the Cock House Cup:

Results: Senior football — 6th, junior 4th; senior hockey — 5th, junior 4th; cross country — 4th.

We won the inaugural and as yet unofficial Interhouse Rugby competition. Although the results weren't generally encouraging and we dropped to 7th position with 41 Cock House Cup points, only 12 points separated all eight houses.

Ironically Buntine's poor efforts in Interhouse sports were due to her having so many good sportsmen selected in first teams, these boys being ineligible for interhouse competitions.

In the 1st XVIII from Buntine were Ray Tarik (a proud captain) Geoff Hodsdon, Geoff Scott, brother Steve and Bruce Badge; in the 1st XI Hockey were Craig Smith and Greg McKay, in the 1st XV Rugby were Greg Jones, Gary Mann, Mike Allen and Bill Rowbotham.

Nearing the end of second term we learned that Mr. Towers, who had been house master for about 2½ years, was to be relieved by Mr. Carey in 3rd term. The boys of Buntine are extremely grateful for the work and effort that Mr. Towers put into the house and were sorry to see him relinquish his position.

THIRD TERM

With the advent of the third term, most boys in the House were concerned with the Inter House Sports, which would decide whether or not we were going to figure prominently in the Cock House Cup for 1966, and training for these sports began almost immediately.

With bad weather causing postponement of the Inter House Sports till after the Inter School Athletic Carnival at Perry Lakes, boys were able to put in an extra week of training before the sports. The day finally arrived and it was thought throughout the school that Buntine had a good chance of winning the Athletic Cup, and this was to be so. All boys in the House who participated must be congratulated for the tremendous effort they gave to defeat the strong Boarding Houses. This meant that, with all sport completed except for Tennis, Buntine was well in the running for the Cock House Cup.

In the School Championships, which were run on the 11th October, the following boys figured prominently:

W. G. Hodsdon. Runner up to Open Champion.

S. G. Scott. Under 16 Champion.

The School Athletics squad commenced training early and W. G. Hodsdon was appointed Captain of Athletics for 1966.

Other boys from the house who represented the House in the Inter School Sports were S. G. Scott, G. K. Jones, P. J. Martin, M. D. Hodsdon, R. Tarik, J. E. Kempin, J. R. Davies, D. Martello, G. A. Davies, W. E. Rowbotham, N. W. Treadgold.

The Inter House Tennis also showed Buntine to be dominant as the House won both the Open and Under 16 competitions and it looked as though we would do well in the Under 14 competition.

Therefore it was obvious that Buntine was going to be well up in the Cock House Cup for 1966. In all it has been a terrific year for the house and it is certain that the success achieved this year will carry over into the new year.

Faulkner House

House Master: Mr. D. F. POAKE

House Captain: D. W. BOYLE

House Prefects: S. H. WELLS, B. R. SANDERSON, E. F. O'HALLORAN
Abd. LATIFF

FIRST TERM

When we commenced school for '66 the boarders already had one night "in" behind them. We were glad to welcome back fifty eight "old" boys and thirteen new ones.

Soon after the term began Stan Wells, Bruce Sanderson, Eric O'Halloran and Abd. Latiff were made house prefects. David Boyle was appointed house captain.

With the Interschool Swimming and Rowing not far away, the boys settled down to train for their respective sports. The Interschool Swimming was held at Beatty Park on March 12th. Faulkner was represented in the school squad by Ken Taylor, who won the u/15 backstroke and came second in the freestyle and was a member of the u/15 winning relay along with Greg Jolly, Dave Boyle, Col Jacob and Steve Young. In the Interschool Life Saving Faulkner was represented by the same boys. In the interboarding house swimming Faulkner narrowly defeated Loton and Wilson.

In cricket we finished second in the house competition and won the interboarding house game. Bruce Sanderson and Terry Waldron were in the school first XI.

In the interhouse rowing event we finished fifth and, in minor sport, we fared even worse, namely last. It had to happen sooner or later.

SECOND TERM

Bruce Sanderson was selected in the 1st XVIII, Stan Wells again in the 1st XI hockey and Dave Boyle, Phil Evans and Abd. Latiff played for the 1st XV rugby.

In interhouse sport our senior football won, and our junior was third to give us an overall win. In hockey we did not do well, but in rugby we reached the semi-finals. We hope the new interhouse rugby competition becomes a permanent one.

In the interboarding house competition we won the football. Every one threw everything he had into the games and, as a result, they were "bloody" victories in more ways than one. The team was lead by "Gus" McPhee and coached by Bruce Sanderson. The hockey team, skippered by "Ernie" Fawcett, beat Wilson and were beaten by Loton. The latter was a hard fought game against great odds, and it too was not without its share of fire.

In the interhouse cross countries the house did well. Perhaps a fair comment would be, "Never have so many been so tired so quickly", as most of the boys took part. In the State cross countries, Stan Wells and "Gus" McPhee took part. In the other aspect of school life, namely the academic side, we had a fair share of success but perhaps not quite as fair as was hoped.

THIRD TERM

The final term commenced with a very enthusiastic house looking forward to a hard term's work, both in the classroom and on the sports field. Many boys joined the athletic squad and the remainder trained very hard at house training, even to the point of training an extra day every week.

The House Sports were due to take place on October 8th but, due to the weather, they were postponed until October 23rd, a Thursday.

On the day Faulkner put in a fantastic effort but were beaten by Buntine House.

To Buntine House go our most sincere congratulations. Faulkner has had the cup for five years, and now we must look forward to its coming back again. Our relay teams secured for us the House Masters' Relay Cup. This is the second time we have won this trophy.

The Interscholar Athletics was held on the 15th October. The boys from Faulkner who competed were: M. J. Ackland, W. J. Barnes, K. S. Cannon, P. C. M. Evans, M. J. Graham, S. S. McAlinden, G. L. McPhee, E. F. O'Halloran, B. R. Sanderson, S. H. Wells, M. J. Young and S. F. Young. Stan Wells was elected vice captain of the school athletic team; he set a good example for the boys to follow.

On 2nd October the Inter Boarding House Table Tennis was played. We had a good team and won convincingly. This meant that Faulkner again won the Inter Boarding House Cup.

The boys of the house would like to thank the House master, Mr. D. F. Poake, and the assistant House masters, Mr. G. M. Wager and Mr. R. D. McMath, for all the effort they have put into helping us in both work and play this year; it was quietly appreciated. We would also like to thank those kind people who donated trophies to the house this year.

This year has been a good one for the house; all boys tried hard in everything they attempted.

Loton

House Master: Mr. T. D. HOAR

School Captain: T. M. BARR

School Prefects: T. M. BARR, K. Y. LEE

House Captain: T. M. BARR

House Prefects: C. D. CAMERON, M. J. DONOVAN,

P. S. K. DUCE, P. L. TOZER

FIRST TERM

On June 23rd, 1965, in a ceremony on the future site of the Loton Boarding House, Sir Thorley Loton, K.B. reset the stone that was laid by his father at Hale School's first boarding house, in 1925. The new building was practically completed for the influx of its new inhabitants at the beginning of Term on 7th February, 1966.

The term started with Terry Barr being appointed school captain and Lee a school prefect. These, as well as the other fifth formers of the house, were later installed as house prefects, having to face the difficult task of setting a new house on its feet.

Swimming commenced immediately, with Terry Barr (who was appointed captain) Lee, Bill Valli, Kevin Reichelt and Peter Tozer earning positions in the interschool team. Terry Barr, Lee and Kev Reichelt were also members of the Life Saving team.

Loton House did well in coming second to Haynes House in the inter-house swimming carnival. Good performances by Bill Valli and Terry Barr earned them the under sixteen and open championships, respectively. Third place getters, Faulkner, succeeded in turning the tables on us and snatching victory in the interboarding house swimming competition, thereby relegating us to second place once again.

In the rowing field, Loton was represented in the first eight by Doug Fowler. In other crews were Ken Duce (second eight), Michael Donovan (first four) Wills Norris (reserve), George Batt (second four) and Graeme Gadd and Ken Bradford who rowed in the third four. The interhouse rowing regatta resulted in Loton's finishing sixth, second out of the boarding houses.

The cricket team led by Tony Blake had an unsuccessful season and ended eighth. Not strong in this field, we again lost to Wilson House in the first match of the inter boarding house competition.

Starting the season very well, the minor sports team looked as if it might win its competition, but due to the loss of some of its principal members to the rowing squad, was unable to finish the season on an equal note, taking only 5th place.

Term's end on 4th May saw most of the boys on their way homewards for a welcome holiday.

SECOND TERM

Second term started in the typical high spirits associated with the boarding houses.

Training for winter sports began immediately and we were well represented in all the school teams. Terry Barr was vice captain of the 1st XV, while Mick Donovan, Roger Bell and Brian Wiese played in the victorious 1st XVIII. The 1st XI hockey was not short of Loton players either, Ken Duce, K. Y. Lee, Pete Tozer and Doug Fowler being team members.

In the interhouse football, the junior team, led by Brian Wiese, played valiantly to gain 6th place, while the senior team, captained by Kevin Reichelt, and in his absence by Tony Blake, was unlucky in coming last. The combined results placed us equal seventh.

We fared better in the hockey. The juniors, led by Bruce Roberts, came top of their competition, while the senior team, captained jointly by Doug Fowler and John Craig, fought back brilliantly in the last few matches to come fourth. Overall, we came second, the winners being Riley House.

In the Rugby, the Loton team, led by Terry Barr, was unfortunate in being beaten in the 1st round by the eventual winners in Buntine House.

The interboarding house hockey was played with the usual zest. Pete Tozer led the hockey team which defeated Faulkner 2-0 after an extremely hard and close game. The footballers, inspired by Mick Donovan's do or die efforts, spurred themselves on to defeat Wilson in the last minutes of the final quarter. However, Faulkner proved too strong for us in this particular field, defeating us in spite of the great determination and spirit shown by the team.

The holidays gave us a welcome break before starting the all important 3rd term.

THIRD TERM

The house started the final term with great enthusiasm, looking forward to the athletics season. A number of boys trained with the school squad and the rest of the house trained with Mr. Hoar. Roger Bell, Mick Donovan, Doug Wright, Wayne Rathjen, George Burcher, George Batt and Brian Wiese were selected in the Inters team and this number of seven showed that we did not lack potential. However, because our numbers were small, we unfortunately gained only eighth place in the Inter House Sports. This result was not an indication of the house's attitude as everyone gave of his best and it is hoped the build up of the boarding houses next year will see Loton climb a few positions.

To the beginning of the Athletics competition, Loton held second position in the Cock House Cup but, because of the close results, would have dropped considerably when the Athletics and Tennis competitions were taken into account. In the boarding house competition we gained second place in the V. S. Murphy House Masters' Cup after having obtained second place in the table tennis competition.

Boys returning to the house next year will feel the absence of Mr. Macmillan and Mr. Phillips who have given valuable service in the boarding establishment and these men along with Mr. Hoar should be thanked for the enthusiasm and interest they have shown this year.

Riley

House Master: Mr. H. C. WHEELER

House Captain: J. BOWDLER

House Prefects: G. van HAZEL

G. DONOVAN, G. WILKINSON

FIRST TERM

The term commenced with E. J. Bowdler being appointed house captain and G. R. Wilkinson vice-captain. Other house prefects to be appointed were G. R. Donovan and G. A. Van Hazel.

The house had a reasonably successful first term with the highlight being the winning of the Minor Sports Shield which was won by a team lead and served well by Kelvin Hutchinson. Credit must go to the whole team who showed tremendous team spirit to win this shield for the first time. The senior house cricket team was captained by G. R. Donovan who lead a team with a great desire to win. Even though there weren't so many great cricketers, the team managed to finish in third place. Graham Donovan also represented the school in the 1st XI. There was no Junior House Competition.

The swimming team was captained by Guy Van Hazel. The team performed creditably despite the fewness of inters swimmers in the house and finished 7th. Particular thanks can be given to Jeremy Humphrey who won three individual races and to the U/13 relay team who also won their event.

SECOND TERM

The winning of the hockey was the highlight of second term. Captained by A. Fethers, the house finished equal first with Parry. To decide the winner, a lightning carnival was held by the junior house hockey teams. Riley managed to finish 3rd but this was enough to finish first overall.

Both senior and junior house football teams had rather a disappointing season. The senior team, captained by

R. G. Noble, finished sixth while the junior team finished seventh.

The house was represented in the undefeated Hale 1st XVIII team by E. J. Bowdler and G. R. Wilkinson. G. A. Van Hazel and G. Heitman were regular members in the Hale 1st XV.

THIRD TERM

At the beginning of third term, the boys were welcomed back with the start of athletic training. This proved to most, as traditionally, a depressing thought. However, with a large lack of talented athletes, the house showed great spirit and determination to finish in 5th place, in front of Stirling, Loton and Wilson houses.

Special congratulations must go to M. Blizzard and E. Isaachsen for representing the school in the Inter School Athletic meeting. Eric Isaachsen, in fact, won his 800 metre event and was the under 16 runner-up in the school championship. Congratulations also go to M. Blizzard for being equal champion in the u/17 age group of the school championships.

With the lack of star participants in most sports, the house showed tremendous team spirit and determination to finish in the position they did, especially the Senior Hockey team and the Minor Sports team. These teams, in fact, brought to the house, for the first time, trophies for coming first in their respective inter house competitions. We now look forward to the winning of more trophies.

The boys all thank House Master, Mr. Wheeler, for his great faith in the house and his tremendous drive to put spirit into the house so that it might establish itself as one of the top houses.

Stirling

House Master: Mr. R. D. McMATH

House Captain: J. G. OWENELL

House Prefects: G. J. CAMPBELL, C. G. JOHNSON, D. J. MILL
P. M. NUTCHEY, K. K. ROBERTS

FIRST TERM

After the commencement of term, Mr. McMATH, our new housemaster, welcomed all new boys as well as those returning. John Owenell was appointed captain of the house and Greg Campbell, Greg Johnson, David Mill, Peter Nutchey and Ken Roberts were appointed house prefects.

The new boys were soon imbued with the spirit of Stirling House and it was with great anticipation that we entered into the sporting and academic sides of school-life.

The first of the sporting highlights during this term was the House Swimming Sports. Although Stirling was placed only sixth, every boy tried his best. At the Inter-School Swimming Sports we were represented by Peter Nutchey (symbols), Terry Mill, Bruce Shenn (member of the winning relay team) and Ian Sandover (symbols).

The Senior House Cricket team, although gaining only fourth place, played very well and was unlucky not to finish higher up the list. Special mention must be made of Alan Bolton whose batting average exceeded 100. We were represented in the winning First XI Cricket team by Ian Fallick (captain and colours), Alan Bolton (colours), David Mill (symbols) and Allan Chiew.

During the team games competition the growing strength of Stirling House was ably demonstrated, for our team, which competed with great spirit, finished second. A bouquet to Greg Elsegood, the captain, who moulded these lads into a real fighting team.

This year the house team was well represented in the rowing and succeeded in gaining 3rd position in the house competition. Stirling House has always been a strong rowing house and this year we had members representing the school in the fours and eights. Marshall and Johnson fought their way to the finals of the championship pairs whilst M. Goadby stroked the 2nd eight to a creditable 3rd in the interschool competition. Johnson also stroked the 1st eight—we look forward to better things next year.

During the term the appointments of John Owenell as a C.U.O., David Mill as R.S.M. and Richard Bromfield as a C.U.O. in the Cadets were announced.

SECOND TERM

This term began on 24th May. It was an extremely successful twelve weeks with all members entering into their studies, sporting responsibilities and cultural activities with great zest.

The Junior House Football team put up an excellent showing to finish first in their competition and they are to be congratulated on a particularly meritorious win. The Senior House Football team did not do quite as well, but struggled hard to finish fourth. The House was, however, strongly represented by David Mill (vice-captain), Ian Fallick (symbols), John Owenell (symbols), Greg Elsegood (symbols) and Greg Campbell (symbols) in the victorious school 1st XVIII Football team.

The Senior House Hockey team played very well and with Greg Johnson as coach finished third. The House was represented in the 1st XI Hockey team by Greg Johnson (symbols).

For the first time in the history of Hale School there was an Inter-House Rugby competition. Though we had only one Rugby player (Terry Mill, symbols and captain of the 1st XV), every player fought valiantly and the side managed fourth place.

As was the case last year, the School Cross Country Championships were held in second term. The house performed most creditably to finish third in the overall placings. A brilliant performance was put up by the open division runners (David Mill, John Owenell, Richard Bromfield and Peter Nutchey) who finished fourth. This was a most commendable effort.

On the cultural side of school-life, Bill Humphreys represented the House in the Combined Schools' Plays and Greg Johnson and Greg Campbell were responsible for much of the School's success in Debating and Chess respectively.

Term ended on 17th August. It had been a most rewarding middle term and the House was lying second in the Cock-House Cup competition.

THIRD TERM

On returning from the August holidays the house immediately commenced training for the Inter-House sports. With Mr. McMath and the Chaplain coaching, all boys entered into the spirit of the idea and trained enthusiastically.

Unfortunately we did not have many outstanding athletes and, though every boy tried his best, the house could only manage sixth place in the House sports. However, at the School championships we were represented by a brilliant athlete in David (Oscar) Mill. He was the Open Champion, winning the 100, 200, 400 and 1500 metres and the Hurdles. He also managed a 2nd in the 800 metres.

David represented us at the Inter School Athletics together with Bradley Zimbulis (symbols) and Graham Thomson and they are to be congratulated on their efforts; in particular Oscar Mill who won the Open 400 and 800 metres and was second in the open 100 and 200 metres.

Stirling House provided three members for the School Shooting Team. They were Richard Bromfield (captain), David Mill and Michael Goadby.

Overall, 1966 has been a good year for Stirling House. Though we were sorry to lose our old Housemaster Mr. Massey, to Wilson House, we were fortunate in gaining such a dynamic personality as Mr. McMath. The House Prefects and the House as a whole sincerely thank Mr McMath for his efforts in furthering the influence of Stirling House and for the time he gave in helping each individual member of the House over times of "crisis". We are sure that in the future the House, with the spirit generated this year, will continue to grow so that Stirling House will remain a strong force in the scholastic, sporting, and social facets of school-life.

Wilson House

House Master: Mr. B. MASSEY

House Captain: P. G. MARTIN

House Prefects: R. CANDY, P. DUDAREC, R. J. SEARLS,
M. FULWOOD

FIRST TERM

On the 8th of February, with Wilson House still being remodelled, both new and old boys returned to school. Mr. Massey, the new housemaster, introduced last year's house captain, L. Underdown, as a boarding house master along with Mr. G.

Aitken, who later left the house and was replaced by Mr. E. Happ. The next night the house prefects were sworn in and the year had begun in earnest.

With the advent of this term came training for rowing, swimming, and tennis. Wilson House contributed greatly to the teams.

Our strength in rowing was shown in the inter-house rowing competition where we attained 1st place for the fifth year in succession. In this winning crew were H. Cowan (stroke), G. B. House (3), T. Doncon (2), H. Brown (Bow) and P. Coates (cox).

Members of the house in crews on Head of the River day were: H. Cowan, T. Doncon, P. Coates (cox) — 1st VIII. G. House (2nd VIII), P. G. Martin (1st 4), R. J. Searls (2nd 4).

Due to division of the boarding house this year and the fact that only two members of the house — P. Dudarec and D. Landau—were in the school swimming squad, Wilson House managed only a minor place in the inter-house swimming competition. Unfortunately this same pattern was followed in the inter-boarding house carnival.

In the senior house cricket, the team being made up of many junior boys, Wilson House obtained only a tail-end placing. However, a determined side fought fiercely to gain second place in the inter-boarding house competition.

A new member to the house, R. Candy, was seeded number three in the school tennis and helped the house to second place in the inter-boarding house matches.

A surprising second place was also achieved by the house's minor sports team.

During the term symbols were awarded to: R. Candy (tennis) and H. Cowan, T. Doncon and P. Coates (rowing). Congratulations go to these members.

M. Fulwood was appointed C.Q.M.S. in the Hale School Cadet Unit.

The term ended on the fourth of May with all members understanding the secret of the Wilson House spirit.

SECOND TERM

In the incipient stages of the second term Wilson House showed the determined attitude which was to gain the house those honours in the sporting fields which eventually were to put the house forward in its challenge for the Cock House Cup.

In the academic field M. Walters received an Engineering scholarship as well as a Commonwealth Scholarship. An award of the latter kind was also received by T. Doncon.

In the football, the juniors, who had constantly shown their worth in other respects, clinched second place in the inter-house matches. The seniors also fought valiantly, but were hindered by injuries and other unfortunate aspects and, after an encouraging start, were only able to gain 5th place.

A novelty this year was the inter-house Rugby matches which Wilson House was very unlucky to lose. In a heated final match, Wilson House, a smaller team backed by impressive house spirit, were defeated by Buntine House.

Three members of the house represented the school in the first XV Rugby team — M. Fulwood, P. Dudarec, R. J. Searls. Congratulations to these 3 for being awarded their symbols. Also worth mentioning is a trophy won by P. Dudarec for best player in the Christ Church-Hale School rugby match.

Mention must certainly be made of the two hard-fighting Wilson House inter-house hockey teams. The juniors gave us another valuable second place and the under-manned seniors battled hard but without significant success.

In the inter-boarding house competition this term we managed to come only third in both hockey and football, although the effort of the football players was one of the best seen in years.

With all winter sports finished, training for cross country athletics commenced. The house undoubtedly brought credit to the school in the State Cross Country Championships run at Perry Lakes where R. Shipway gained honours with 2nd place in the under 14 event. Also running for the house were both R. and B. Wilson and R. Candy.

On Tuesday 26th July, the school inter-house cross country was run. R. Shipway again showed his ability in winning the under 14 event with an equally keen R. Wilson coming a close second place. In the under 15 event B. Wilson came second in a strongly finished race. R. Candy, a consistent athlete, was placed second in the open event.

With these good efforts the house won the Cross Country and so completed a very successful term well up in the running for the Cock House Cup.

THIRD TERM

With the end of vacation and the advent of third term, the boys in Wilson house returned to face the final part of the year with much enthusiasm.

The term was off to a good start with house athletic training and again our prowess was exhibited in the school cross country championships. R. Candy came third in the open section and R. Shipway first, with R. Wilson second in the under 14 event. Also worthy of mention was B. Wilson's second place in the under 15 race.

Wilson House contributed a great number of members to the school athletics team. These boys were: M. Fulwood, R. Candy, J. McPharlin, G. B. House, R. Cannon, both R. and B. Wilson. McPharlin and Shipway proved themselves in the school championships with McPharlin winning the under 14 trophy and Shipway coming runner-up.

The first glimpse of Wilson house's under 14 superiority was seen in the winning of the relay.

On Thursday October 20 the inter house athletic carnival was held. Although the house spirit was exceptional, Wilson House was able to be placed only 7th, due to a great lack of members, especially in the senior groups. The under 14 team did their best to help the house forward by winning the vast majority of their races in all divisions. Especially noticeable was the number of victories in the 200 metre events.

Special mention must be given to under 14 R. Shipway for his courageous effort in coming 4th in the open 800 metres.

The junior house again showed their strength in the junior house cricket. Special mention should go to M. Hirsch and P. Just for their outstanding performances. Also with respect to cricket, M. Shipway and M. Hirsch made the 1st XI squad.

In concluding, it has been a good year with each member of the house doing his bit. Mr. Massey has done a tremendous job in providing the backbone for the house and in setting a new attitude to the house to be followed in further years. Thanks should go to the patient assistant house masters, Mr. Underdown and Mr. Happ, for their task in providing discipline in a unified house. All in all, it has been a year of changes with all working together to uphold the new house motto of: STRENGTH IN UNITY.

Haynes

House Master: MR. A. R. TAYLOR

House Captain: I. B. COLLINS

House Prefects: C. L. BENNETT, J. R. ILBERY, J. SIMPSON

N. H. SMITH, G. R. BURKE

FIRST TERM

Ian Collins was appointed captain of the House. Colin Bennett, Nick Smith, Garry Burke and John Simpson were made House Prefects.

Soon after the start of the sporting activities it was obvious that Haynes was to be a strong contender for the Cock House Cup.

The first major sporting event was the swimming at Beatty Park. Haynes House was represented by John Ilbery, David Yates, Niall Reynolds, Neil Biddle and Anthony Yates.

These boys are to be congratulated on the part they played in helping the school come so close to winning the event.

Following this, Haynes showed their ability as swimmers when they gained a very well earned first in the House Swimming. John Ilbery should especially be thanked for the fine manner in which he led the side. Although the house had a few "stars", the victory must be mainly attributed to the depth of talent and the will to win of the competitors.

Haynes was again well represented in the cricket. Colin Bennett vice-captained the team and, for outstanding performances, was later awarded his colours. John Simpson and Nick Smith played vital parts in the winning of the shield. Colin Bennett was fittingly named captain of the house cricket team. However, they managed only sixth place.

In tennis the house was again represented by Collins who played in the victorious first IV and later captained the house tennis team to second place. The under 16 team also managed second place.

Although the rowers didn't quite click, it was not through lack of training and in this field we again saw the house represented in the first VIII by Richard Greene and Athol Jamieson. The house IV gained fourth place.

In the house team games Haynes did well to finish equal third.

At the end of first term Haynes were the leaders for the Cock House Cup and the stage was set for a good second term.

SECOND TERM

During the course of the term Gary Burke left the school to take up a scholarship in America and his position as a House Prefect was taken by John Ilbery.

Haynes House was well represented in the first XVIII. Ian Collins, Nick Smith, Colin Bennett and Barry Du Feu were all regular members of the team.

The senior house football team was captained by Richard Greene. A good spirit developed and the side played well to come third. Dave Holywell captained the junior team and it wasn't through lack of trying that only eighth place was gained. As a result, the house finished an overall fifth for the competition.

The house hockey team was ably captained by Peter Candy but, even though many fine wins were recorded, the side managed only sixth. The junior hockey side, captained by Vern Teasdale, could gain only a minor place.

In the cross-countries the house didn't fare so well, but Geoff Harris is to be congratulated for his fine win in the under/17 mile.

THIRD TERM

Third term saw the House begin training for the House Athletic Sports. Most boys trained under Mr. Taylor, but a considerable number joined the School squad, thus raising hopes for better performances in the House Sports.

The House Sports originally to be held on Saturday the 8th of October were postponed until Thursday the 20th. When the Sports did finally eventuate, it was obvious that Haynes was out to win. Unfortunately, Buntine proved to be much too strong and we ended up taking only fourth place. This was a creditable effort, however.

The School Championships once again proved to be a great success. Haynes showed their athletic prowess at these sports and fine individual performances were given by Geoff Harris (equal under 17 Champion) and David Holywell (under 15 Champion). These boys are to be congratulated for their great performances.

As a result of many weeks of hard work the following boys were finally chosen to represent the school at the Inter School Athletics Sports at Perry Lakes: Nick Smith, Ian Collins, Barry DuFeu, Geoff Harris, John Ibbs, David Yates, David Holywell, James Edgerton, and Robert Jackson. All these boys are to be congratulated for the performances they gave. Special mention should go to David Holywell for winning The First Division of the under 15, 100 and 200 metres and also to Nick Smith who ran a great race to win the Second Division of the open 1500 metres.

Although the House was quite gifted in the field of Sport, they will not see any dramatic change until such time as every boy in every team shows a fanatical desire to achieve success. At times we were perhaps a little apathetic.

The whole of Haynes House would like to express appreciation to Mr. Taylor for his untiring work throughout the year.

Parry

House Master: MR. G. N. ALTORFER

House Captain: P. J. DYSON

School Prefects: P. J. DYSON, A. K. R. PRINCE

House Prefects: G. B. GRAY, S. W. BOSICH, R. P. C. SALMON

FIRST TERM

With house spirit at last having been infused into our blood by our previous House Captain, Tim Hantke, and Mr. Altorfer resuming his duties as House Master, we looked forward to improved results in all aspects of House activities this year.

Peter Dyson is to be congratulated on being selected a School Prefect and consequently becoming our new House Captain. This was a popular choice amongst the boys of the House and he was to be backed up by Geoff Gray and Kevin Prince, both retaining their positions as House Prefects from the previous year.

The House, captained by Graham Parker, was placed fourth in the Inter House Swimming Sports, a great improvement on other years. The House was represented in the Inter School Swimming Sports by Nick Levinson, John Blackman, Graham Parker and Terry Arcus.

The second sporting event of the year, and a very important one at that, was the House Cricket. Here the House excelled itself when the Senior team, led by Robert Salmon, finished clear leaders in this competition, swamping Faulkner in the final and hence achieving a win in this sport for the first time in the history of the House. All members played a valuable part in this fine effort and it would be unfair to single out individual members of the winning team. First XI members were Robert Salmon, Vaughan Veryard, Tony Irvine and David Lawson.

Congratulations to Tony Irvine on receiving his colours.

Parry has always been a strong rowing house and this year was no exception. With the captain of rowing, Kevin Prince, and experienced First VIII member Geoff Gray in our First IV, we naturally had high hopes of victory. However, our hopes were dashed when, after reaching the final, we were unfortunate in drawing the notorious leaky boat "The Rogers" and, although the four put up a game exhibition, they went down fighting to Wilson House. Bad luck crew — it just doesn't pay to have excess weight!!

The final sporting event of the term, minor sports, did not prove as successful for Parry as it has done over the past years. The team, captained by Colin Griffiths, had to lower their colours this year and occupied a lowly position.

First term proved to be most successful on the sporting side and we were very well placed in the Cock House Cup. It was up to the teams to show as much interest and enthusiasm, even if with little success, as our teams in this first term had displayed.

SECOND TERM

The commencement of 2nd term saw the House in its best position for sport and spirit since its beginning in 1961.

The Senior House Football team was unlucky not to win the competition and had to be content with 2nd place. The team, which showed great determination, was captained by David Lawson. The Junior Football team, captained by Gary Woods, did not do as well and had to be content with 5th place. The House was represented in the School's 1st XVIII by Robert Salmon and Vaughan Veryard.

Geoff Gray was appointed captain of the School's 1st Hockey XI. The Senior House Hockey team, captained by Graham Parker, did very well and finished equal 1st. Congratulations go to this team. The Junior team, captained by Robert Loveland, finished 7th. House representatives in the School's 1st XI were Geoff Gray (the captain), Richard Leonhardt, Tony Irvine and Peter Morgan.

An Inter House Rugby competition was held for the first time but carried no house points. Parry lost only to Stirling. Members of the School's 1st XV were Peter Dyson, Kevin Prince, Stephan Bosich, Colin Griffiths, Ian Ferguson and Brendon Leppard. Congratulations to Stephan Bosich and Colin Griffiths on being selected in the State U/18 team.

Congratulations must also go to Stephan Bosich and Robert Salmon on being elected house prefects, and to Kevin Prince for being made a School Prefect.

Second term was one of the most successful terms in the history of the house. Thanks go to Mr. Altorfer for giving his full support to all teams throughout this term and all others.

THIRD TERM

At the beginning of third term the House once again started Athletic Training under the guidance of Mr. Altorfer and Mr. Gidney, because of whose dedication and enthusiasm our hopes were high for success in the Inter House sports. There were several representatives of the House in the School squad, who sometimes assisted in the training programme.

In the House sports Parry came third over-all, a dramatic and most welcome improvement in the history of the House. This success illustrates the obvious benefits of Mr. Altorfer's training programme.

Outstanding efforts this term were made by G. Woods, M. Camilleri, W. Smith, R. Yeowell and J. Mills.

The Cricket teams must also be congratulated on coming second to Faulkner, by only one point in the overall competition.

It is interesting to note two additional sporting achievements: Anthony Irvine's selection in the Australian Schoolboys' tour of India (1966-67) and Peter Dyson's second placing in the State Winter Surfboard Championships.

Throughout the year all teams have shown that what they may lack in physical prowess they certainly make up in enthusiasm and determination; much credit for this attitude is due to Mr. Altorfer and the spirit of the House as a whole.

We would like to thank Mr. Altorfer for his efforts this year, and wish him all the best of luck for his forthcoming holiday which he has so richly deserved.

COACH'S RESUME

Success at last! The elusive Alcock Cup has come home to Hale School after an absence of nineteen years. My congratulations and, indeed, the congratulations of all at Hale go out to the team for their magnificent effort. We are often reminded that 'you can't win em all'. Well Hale's 1966 footballers defied this rule by triumphing in all 18 of their matches, including the 10 Cup Matches. An extremely even, skilful and unselfish team were clear winners from WC 7, SC and AC 5, GGS 3 and Christ Church 0.

GREAT CARNIVAL IN MAY.

This remarkable season had many outstanding features, the first of which was a fine Carnival against Scotch Adelaide and Geelong College.

Anxious to repay Scotch's superb hospitality of Adelaide last year, many Hale boys from all sports and of all ages provided entertainment in the form of a Barbeque, Rottnest trip, a Car Rally, Dinner and Interstate Dance as well as less formal activity. It was a genuine case of 'togetherness' organisation. Everyone helped and I thank, not only our visitors for making it so enjoyable, but also the boys, Old Boys and particularly the parents for their great contribution. The billeting out of some 56 boys and the work of those who decorated the Hall and provided the food for the Dance are worthy of special mention. We must all salute the tireless Mr. Towers and the ever hospitable Mr. Drake for all they did. On the football side the team was successful and in fact brilliant against Scotch Adelaide. The large ground bewildered SC who were no match for the speedy Hale whose handball and general teamwork enabled it to win by 17.11 to 6.4. Geelong College restricted our football in the other game and the Blue men had to struggle to score by 7.10 to 6.10 after an exciting game. There can be no doubt as to the value of these Carnivals. Not only are they an excellent football preparation for the season but they also provide a memorable experience for all. In 1967 we go back to SC and the following year it's Geelong's turn.

THE CUP MISSION

The achievement of the first mission, Carnival success, gave us the knowledge that we could win the Cup. In the opening game Scotch, a worthy opponent and cruel crusher of us so often in the past, were simply bamboozled by Hale. Who will ever forget the majestic Collins—the ground became his kingdom, all of Scotch his subjects. GCS held Hale for twenty minutes and then the machine whirled into action for an eight goal second quarter. Wesley found Hale in irresistible form all over the ground, especially in the final quarter when Tarik, Mill Hodsdon, Owenell and the rest produced some of the best play-on football of the season. After outclassing Christ Church we prepared for Aquinas, the team that has won nearly two thirds of all Alcock Cup competitions. Hale's system was again convincing, rover Valli was outstanding and the backs had a great day in holding AC to their lowest ever score against Hale—3-6. At this stage Hale were two games ahead, had the astronomical percentage of 370 and were poised for the final onslaught.

Could the enthusiasm, skill and teamwork be maintained or would the inevitable bad game eventuate? Luckily, the unimpressive effort was against the Old Boys. The giants of the past produced a fighting second half and Hale were fortunate to win by 13.12 to 12.15. And then to round two. The dazzling system was not present against Scotch or Guildford. The team played soundly enough in winning by 33 and 41 points respectively, with men like Donovan and Bowdler doing well, but Wesley was to decide our fate. In the highest-standard game of the year both teams played strongly with the breeze and only Hale's powerful second term against the breeze enabled it to win. Wesley rocketed home in the final quarter and fittingly it was Ray Tarik and David Mill who inspired the team to withstand the challenge. The 18 point victory gave Hale the Cup, the first since the 1947 team was successful. We celebrated possession of the Alcock Cup by then kicking the highest score ever against the luckless Christ Church—24-22. And then to the dramatic climax at Aquinas. Both sides played good football and were locked together in a gripping struggle. By virtue of their quick forwards AC were 10 points ahead with five minutes to go. It seemed all over—a tragic end to a fine season. But these Hale players, successful so easily so often, proved their true worth, under great pressure, by all rising up like men possessed, kicking two goals, winning by 3 points and literally grabbing back their unbeaten record from great rivals, Aquinas. Incidentally, Hale has not been defeated on the Hale Oval since July 1964 and during this season won their first game ever on the Scotch ground.

This was a true team. On many occasions all were stars although sometimes we saw more skill from some, possibly because their position on the ground gave them more of the play. At centre half back Geoff Hodsdon was a dashing player who rarely performed badly. The blonde man, Ray Tarik—an excellent ruckman—had striking effects in our football while Ian Collins is already a pedigreed player. He did more than anyone to bring other men into the game. That volatile wizard, David Mill, ultra skilled although occasionally selfish Bill Valli, rugged and honest Mick Donovan, Big Stan Bosich, creative Ian Fallick, the go go rover Jim Bowdler, the stylish Steven Scott and the sometimes amazing John Owenell had many good days. They, like me, though, would be the first to pay tribute to the rest of the 'team'. If I was allowed to use only one word to describe the reasons for the success of this team and its teamwork I would choose 'handball'. The inclination to handball to someone in a superior position must produce unselfish teamwork.

There are many I must thank—former coaches in Mr. Towers and Mr. Mill, Mr. Hodson who waved the flags, the boundary boys, trainer Roberts, the trophy donors, parents, friends and Old Boys for their great support, Neil Donaldson who helped me patrol the boundary line each Saturday, senior players and great helpers in Ian Collins and Geoff Hodsdon and especially the two leaders Ray Tarik and David Mill, who not only played well but also selected and inspired the team. The team would like to thank the Aquinas Headmaster, Brother Wooddruff, for presenting the magnificent Alcock Cup to Ray Tarik and thank also Mr. Ken Jones and his Old Boys' Committee for honouring this occasion by presenting each member of the team with a beautiful Cup.

And what of the future? Most of this team will leave school and 1967 will be harder. A tradition has come into Hale football and players right through the school give much for their team and school. If each person does his very best to reach his personal top form and each team honours teamwork and the team then loses, no one can complain. When we believe we can do much better is a time to feel perturbed. The 1967 boys will do well if they believe in themselves and are then prepared to work hard for Hale School football.

Finally I thank all in the 1966 team. Abuse was handed out in large chunks through the season. Now I praise and thank the players for allowing me, after years of defeat and disillusionment when I was at Hale, to be associated with success. The flame of Hale School Football has never burnt brighter. Whether it will flicker in the draughtly corridors of the future remains to be seen. In my view it won't, if all men are prepared to devote as much attention to unselfish teamwork as the 1966 team did. Good luck to them in their future and may those who return keep that flame burning incessantly.

A. J. Macmillan.

HALE v SCOTCH

Played at Hale School.

After winning the interstate carnival, the Hale side was confident of beating the Alcock Cup holders, Scotch, in the first "Cup" game of the season.

Scotch won the toss and kicked with a fresh breeze. However, Hale continually won the ball from the ruck duels and were in attack for most of the quarter, at the end of which they led, 1-4 to 1-0.

Hale, in turn, failed to capitalize fully on the breeze, but they prevented Scotch from scoring and led by 20 points at half-time, 3-8 to 1-0.

Once again Hale outscored Scotch against the breeze, due to their fine teamwork and intelligent handball. Collins, when switched to centre, played a great game, as did the impassable Hodsdon at centre-half-back, and rover Valli. The three quarter time scores were 7-9 to 3-1 in Hale's favour.

The home team completely overran the opposition in the last quarter, but were let down badly by goalfrost inaccuracy. However, the convincing 53 point victory augured well for a great season.

Final Scores: Hale, 9-18; Scotch, 3-1.

Goal Scorers: Valli, 3; Collins, 2; Hodsdon, Bosich, Elsegood, Fallick, 1.

Best Players: Collins, Hodsdon, Valli, S. Scott, Bosich, Tarik.

HALE v GUILDFORD GRAMMAR

Played at G.G.S.

After the previous week's resounding victory over Scotch, Hale was confident of victory, and fine weather prior to the match ensured a good firm playing surface.

Tarik lost the toss, and Hale kicked against a strong breeze. Both sides were slow to start, but Guildford failed to take advantage of the breeze, being only 11 points ahead at the first change. The quarter time scores were Guildford 2.2 to Hale 0.3.

Hale came into their own in the second quarter and, using long kicks with the breeze, added 8 goals 4 behinds to Guildford's solitary behind. Hale was on top in every position. Fallick played cleverly to kick 3 goals.

The game still had not been won, and much rested on the defenders to withstand any Guildford attack with the breeze. They played grandly (Hodsdon particularly prominent) and Hale outscored their opponents to lead 11.9 to 3.4 at the last change.

Hale relaxed in the last quarter and, with the forward line congested, added 2.7 to Guildford's 1.1.

With this win, Hale was the only unbeaten team so far in the competition.

Final Scores—Hale 13.16, Guildford 4.5.

Goal Scorers—Fallick 4, Bosich 4, Valli 2, Tarik, Collins, Sanderson 1 each.

Best players—Hodsdon, Bowdler, Bosich, Fallick, Wiese, Smith, Valli.

HALE v WESLEY

Played at Hale School.

The breeze favoured neither end and Hale kicked to the northern end after Tarik had won the toss.

Hale went into attack immediately and, at the first change, led 3.3 to 1.1.

In the second quarter, "Oscar" Mill, after a two weeks' absence, began to dominate the centre position, and, with Ray Tarik controlling the bounce-downs and high marking contests, Hale led by 5 goals at half-time, 6.8 to 2.1.

Wesley came back into the game straight after the half-time interval, kicking 4 goals in the first 10 minutes but Hale steadied, and held a commanding lead at the last change, 11.16 to 6.2.

In a rugged last quarter, in which a number of Wesley players were injured, Hale completely over-ran their opponents to kick 8.1. The half forward line, which had been fairly quiet for most of the match, now began to function brilliantly, with Greg Elsegood, on the flank, striking form. Hale's backing up based upon creative handball was of a high standard.

Hale ran out easy winners, somewhat making up for the loss to Wesley last year, which probably cost us the Alcock Cup.

Final Scores—Hale 19.17, Wesley 6.6.

Goal Scorers—Tarik 5, Valli 4, Mill 3, Sanderson 2, Fallick, Donovan, Collins, Bowdler, Elsegood, 1 each.

Best players—Tarik, Mill, Owenell, Hodsdon, Valli, Donovan.

HALE v CHRIST CHURCH GRAMMAR

Played at C.C.G.S.

Hale approached this match with much confidence; too much confidence. Christ Church, who had yet to win a match, won the toss and kicked with a fairly strong wind. They were soon into attack, took the Hale side by surprise, and led by 1 point at the first change, 3.1 to 2.6.

In the second quarter, with the breeze, Hale played much better, with Mick Donovan, on the ball, and, "Oscar" Mill, in the centre, playing strongly. However Hale's teamwork still failed to function properly. Another factor was the tendency for the forwards to turn out towards the boundary instead of into the play. The half time scores were Hale 8.10 to Christ Church 3.2.

After a "roasting" by the coach at half-time, Hale played their best football for the match in the third quarter. Kicking against the breeze, they added 7 goals 1 behind to Christ Church's 2 behinds. Hale's teamwork functioned smoothly with the forwards keeping the play open.

After receiving an ultimatum from the coach for a minimum of 20 goals, Hale played well all over the ground in the last quarter, except in front of goals. Seven points were kicked but eventually Hale managed to get the 20 goals required. In this quarter John Owenell starred on a half-back flank, repulsing a number of attacks with good marks.

Final Scores—
Hale School 20.18, Christ Church 3.6.

Goal Scorers—Bosich 6, Tarik 2, Donovan, Elsegood, Mill, 2 each. Fallick, Valli, Bowdler, Collins, Sanderson, 1 each.

Best players—Donovan, Owenell, Bosich, Fallick, Mill, Collins.

HALE v AQUINAS

Played at Hale School.

Hale tackled this game against arch-rivals Aquinas with zest, and their more polished football in the drizzle of rain that continued for most of the match led them to an easy 51 point win.

Hale kicked with the advantage of a slight breeze in the first quarter but after 5 minutes the rain commenced to fall. Both teams started to fumble the ball, an exception being a brilliant one-handed diving mark by Ian Fallick. At the first change Hale led 3.2 to 0.1.

The second quarter was a hard slogging affair with Hale adding 1 goal to Aquinas' 1 point to lead 4.2 to 0.2 at the long interval.

In the third quarter Hale's teamwork was too good, and with Bill Valli in brilliant form, Hale added 5.5 to Aquinas' 1 goal to lead 9.7 to 1.2 at the last change.

Aquinas' terrific team spirit showed when they rallied with the help of their comrades' war-cries to produce some good fighting football in the last quarter. This was the best quarter of the match, as Aquinas attacked strongly. Geoff Hodsdon and Nick Smith battled manfully to repel the Aquinians and Hale eventually ran out winners by 8 goals 3 behinds.

The efforts of the Hale backmen were commended by the coach, because they held Aquinas to what is probably their lowest ever score against Hale.

Final Scores—Hale 11.9, Aquinas 3.6.

Goal Scorers—Valli 5, Fallick 2, Bosich, Mill, Elsegood, Bowdler 1 each.

Best players—Valli, Hodsdon, Smith, Bowdler, Bell, Donovan.

HALE v SCOTCH

Played at Scotch.

Hale knew that the determined Scotch side would put up a good fight in this match; it was Scotch's last chance to have any hope of winning the Alcock Cup. They went straight into attack, after their captain, Thompson, had won the toss and kicked with a 5 goal breeze. However, despite the fact that Hale did not register a score in the first term, their backmen, playing sound defensive football, restricted Scotch to a mere 4 points.

In the second term, with the breeze, Hale displayed, in patches, some terrific football—one passage, involving Collins and Mill, being the best of the season. Ian Fallick was marking brilliantly and playing intelligently at centre-half forward, and so Hale led at half-time 7-10 to 0.6.

The third quarter was a beauty, producing the most thrilling Alcock Cup football of the season, as the Scotch players threw everything into a desperate onslaught with the breeze. Their big men, Thompson and Knox, were marking fantastically, and could not be curbed. Ray Tarik was moved to centre-half-back to try to neutralize them. A timely goal to Hale just before the siren saw them lead by 2.3 at the last interval, 8.12 to 6.9.

Although kicking with the breeze in the final term, Hale didn't have things all their own way, as Scotch fought to the finish. Finally though, Hale proved too much and, with a great goal from a long kick after the siren, following a good mark, by Roger Bell, Hale ran out winners by 33 points.

Final Scores—Hale 12.18, Scotch 8.9.

Goal Scorers—Tarik 2, Mill 2, Fallick 2, Collins, Sanderson, Weisse, S. Scott, Veryard, Bell 1 each.

Best Players—Fallick, Campbell, S. Scott, Smith, Bell, Tarik.

HALE v GUILDFORD GRAMMAR

Played at Hale School

Guildford won the toss and kicked against a stiff breeze. Hale started sluggishly and displayed little team work, whereas the tenacious Guildford team fought hard and managed to kick 2 valuable goals against the breeze. The Hale backmen, normally strong, let Guildford create too many loose men. At the first change Hale held a slender lead 4.1 to 2.0.

Going into the breeze in the second quarter Hale battled a little harder but still brought themselves down to Guildford's standard by displaying little of their usual system. S. Scott and Weisse, on the wings, played well and tried to get the side functioning well and Hale outscored their opponents by 4 points to lead 6.2 to 3.3 at the long interval.

After the half-time break Hale played a little better, and with Donovan playing tigerishly and Tarik coming into the game, they added 4 goals to lead 10.4 to 4.3 at the three-quarter interval.

With the use of the breeze in the last quarter Guildford still had a chance of over-coming the 37 point deficit, and they went immediately into attack, but only kicked points. Hale forced the ball into a scoring position and the resulting goal seemed to seal the game.

In this quarter Donovan and Bowdler continued their sustained efforts on the ball.

Final Scores—Hale 12-8, Guildford 5-9.

Goal Scorers—Bowdler 4, Elsegood 2, Donovan, Bosich, Mill, Valli, S. Scott, Veryard, 1 each.

Best Players—Donovan, Bowdler, Weisse, S. Scott, Collins, Valli.

HALE v WESLEY

Played at Wesley

Wesley won the toss and kicked against the breeze. The first quarter was a scramble affair, with Hale lowered to Wesley's standard. Wesley played well against the breeze, of which Hale failed to take advantage, and at the first break Hale held an insufficient 11 point lead, 4.6 to 3.1.

Hale's second quarter effort won them the match. With their usual systematic football showing out in patches, they outscored Wesley against the breeze by 9 points. David Mill and Ray Tarik were the two main players in Hale's better showing. At the half-time interval Hale led 10.8 to 7.6.

Hale continued their better football in the third quarter, but goal front inaccuracy cost them the chance of an unassailable three quarter time lead. They added 6 goals 11 behinds to Wesley's solitary point and this seemed a good enough lead, even allowing for Wesley's last use of the breeze. Three quarter time scores were, Hale 16.19, Wesley 7.7.

However, Wesley fought back magnificently in the last quarter, as their centre half-forward directed long kicks to the goal mouth. The Hale backmen become ruffled under pressure and failed to stick to their men. The lead was too great to overcome though, and Hale eventually won by 18 points, after some hectic moments. This was easily the best performance put up by a team against Hale so far for this year.

Final Scores—Hale 16.22, Wesley 15.10.

Goal Scorers—Mill 5, Bosich 3, Sanderson 3, Valli 2, Bowdler, Tarik, Fallick 1 each.

Best Players—Mill, Tarik, Sanderson, Bell, Wilkinson, Collins.

HALE v CHRIST CHURCH

Played at Hale

Christ Church had yet to win a game, and in this match they clearly showed why. After winning the toss and kicking with a good breeze, they trailed Hale 1.0 to 5.4 after the first quarter.

With the breeze in the second quarter, Hale were continually in attack; the only time Christ Church had a chance to score, they registered a behind. Hodsdon was supreme at centre-half-back and Bowdler, Fallick and Elsegood were starring in attack. In fact there was not one passenger in the team and at half time Hale held a match winning lead, 13.12 to 1.1.

A little looseness in the back line in the third term enabled the accurate Christ Church forwards to kick 4 goals with the breeze. However, Hale replied with 4 goals to lead at the final change 17.14 to 5.1.

Hale overwhelmed the opposition in the final term but inaccurate kicking for goals cost them the chance of kicking the target of 25 goals. Stephen Scott and Jim Bowdler were again playing well but it is perhaps unfair to single out individuals as all played well. Hale finally won by 135 points.

Final Scores—Hale 24.22, Christ Church 5.1.

Goal Scorers—Bowdler 6, Mill 5, Fallick 2, Elsegood 2, Sanderson 2, Donovan 2, Valli 2, Tarik, Bell, Bosich 1 each.

Best Players—Bowdler, Hodson, S. Scott, Tarik, Collins, Sanderson, Fallick.

HALE v AQUINAS

Played at Aquinas

There was no breeze at all, and Aquinas kicked to the northern end after winning the toss. The first quarter was hard fought, with both teams displaying good play-on football. Hale led at the first change by 2 points, 2-2 to 2-0.

The great play was continued in the second quarter, and Aquinas put the Hale backs under much pressure. However Hodsdon, at centre-half-back, and Owenell, the replacement full back, were in grand form and held up many attacks. Hale clung to its 2 point advantage, and at the half time break, which was welcomed by all players, led 5.3 to 5.1.

Aquinas attacked consistently in the third quarter, receiving drive from their rucks, centres, and half forwards. Only desperate play by Hale's back men kept Aquinas from holding more than their 1 goal lead at three quarter time.

All players had to call on extra reserves of energy in the last quarter, as the very hot conditions were very tiring. Aquinas went straight into attack to increase their lead, but Hale fought back. This was the pattern of play for nearly the whole of the last quarter, until with ten minutes to go Aquinas drew three goals ahead. At this stage, however, Hale showed what a great team they were. Led by an inspired Ray Tarik, they recovered miraculously and, when Stan Bosich took a superb mark 30 yards out and goaled, Hale moved to 3 points ahead. With only half a minute to go, Aquinas again attacked, but the siren sounded when they were only a few yards from their goal square.

Both teams were clapped and cheered off the ground by a crowd that had witnessed a great game of school boy football.

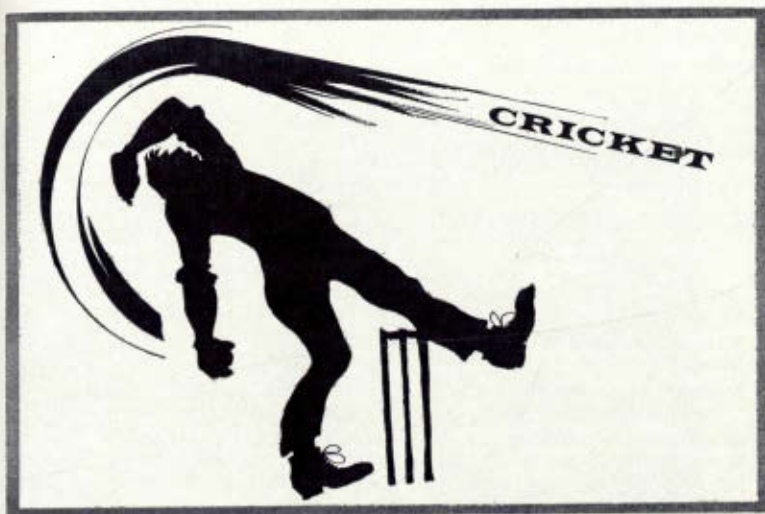

Final Scores—Hale 9.7, Aquinas 9.4.

Goal Scorers—Valli 4, Sanderson 2, S. Scott, Mill, Bosich 1 each.

Best Player—Owenell, Hodsdon, Tarik, S. Scott, Valli, Bosich.

"HIGH MARK" — PETER VINCENT, 15

In 3rd term 1965 the 1st XI played 7 matches, of which 3 were lost and 4 drawn so that it needed rare discernment to forecast a successful 1966 season. In first term 1966, however, eleven matches were played (7 were won, one drawn, and three lost) including the five Darlot Cup matches, of which more later.

SUMMARIES OF MATCHES 1965 (3rd TERM)

Wed. 27th Oct.—Hale 108 for 8 lost to Incogniti 141 for 4. (Fallick 40 not out, Veryard 2 for 35).

Sat. 30th Oct.—v Guildford Grammar School (away). Guildford 122 (Fallick 3 for 24). Hale 60 for 5. (Shanti 20 not out). Match drawn.

Wed. 10th Nov.—Hale 130 for 8 declared (Shanti 25 not out, Chiew 23, Bennett 20), lost to Mr. P. E. M. Holmes's XI, 142 for 5. (J. Scott 100 not out.)

Sat. 13th Nov.—v Christ Church 115 for 5. (Irvine 32, Shanti 32.) Match drawn.
Grammar School (away). Hale 133 for 9 declared, Christ Church

Sat. 20th Nov.—v Aquinas College (away). Aquinas 195 for 8 declared (Wellington 135 not out, McKay 3 for 31.) Hale 129 for 9 (Shanti 32, Bennett 44 not out).

Sat. 27th Nov.—Hale 190 for 3 declared (Fallick 108, Irvine 28, Shanti 31) drew with Trinity 119 for 8 (Shanti 3 for 33, Smith 2 for 19, Fallick 2 for 6).

Thurs. 2nd Dec.—The Masters, 179 for 4 declared (Mr. B. Gidney 102, Mr. P. Holmes 54), defeated Hale 100 (Mr. G. Wager 3 for 8, Mr. Cox 3 for 15, Mr. Gidney 2 for 27, Shanti, 25 Waldron 20, Stone 20).

It will be noticed that in the above mentioned games Hale drew all their matches against other schools, nearly winning one of them and narrowly avoiding defeat in another when Bennett, the captain, played a particularly fine knock assisted at the other end by that great no. 11 batsman, Stan Bosich. Fallick's 100 did him good and although we failed to get any side out (no easy task in the 4 home games—the wicket being so perfect) we were playing together as a team very similar in composition to the following term's, a factor I believe in our subsequent success.

Shanti's unexpected departure in the new year was, however, a sad loss as he looked extremely good on three or four occasions as an aggressive bat and penetrating off-spin bowler.

SUMMARIES OF NON-CUP MATCHES 1966

Sat. 12th Feb.—Mr. P. E. M. Holmes's XI 55 (Bosich 4 for 10, Veryard 3 for 32, Smith 2 for 12) lost to Hale 153 (Irvine 22, Salmon 25, Waldron 27, Chiew 22).

Wed. 16th Feb.—Hale 116 (Fallick 26, Chiew 25, Simpson 26), lost to Incogniti 170 for 6 (Fallick 3 for 56.)

Sat. 19th Feb.—v. Scotch College (away). Scotch 129 (Donovan 5 for 13) Hale 240 (Irvine 54, Salmon 35, Fallick 43, Bolton 50).

Sat. 26th Feb.—Hale 194 (Fallick 61, Chiew 20, Mill 22), defeated Marist Brothers' 122 (Donovan 3 for 17).

Mon. 7th Mar.—Hale 180 for 5 declared (Bolton 44, Fallick 45, Bennett 30 not out), defeated Old Haleians 86 (Fallick 3 for 27, Bosich 3 for 30, McKay 2 for 10.)

Wed. 23rd Mar.—Hale 104 for 6 lost to the Governor's XI 123 for 3. (Bennett 34 not out).

DARLOT CUP MATCHES

HALE v SCOTCH

At Hale — Won on 1st Innings

Apart from a 7th wicket stand of 59, Scotch never looked confident and our catching enabled Bosich's out-swingers to capture 6 wickets. Irvine and Bolton put on 66 for the first wicket and we passed their score with only 4 wickets down. The openers' running between wickets was first class but was never mastered by Fallick and Bennett, who otherwise looked very sound.

HALE v GUILDFORD

At Guildford — lost outright

It is possible that, had we won the toss, we might have won, but I doubt it since our second innings score was well short of Guildford's total. Not unnaturally, a slow English type wicket was outside our experience and this, coupled with really excellent bowling by Sadlier and Duperousel, combined to bring about our downfall. In the last 40 minutes Veryard and Bosich struggled manfully to prevent an inning's defeat, and another 2 runs would have done it for only 10 minutes were left and Guildford could not have batted again.

HALE v WESLEY

At Hale — Won on First Innings

Wesley declared leaving us 10 minutes more than they had had to get 222 runs; notwithstanding that the first wicket partnership of 108 was a great one and that Fallick and Bennett batted well, it wasn't until numbers 8 and 9 were together that we gained the lead.

At this stage the points towards the Darlot Cup were as follows: Wesley 0, Scotch (who had just beaten Aquinas) 12, Christ Church 12, Guildford 14 and Aquinas and ourselves 18 each, so that the final match was to be vital. The Old Haleians telegram to the effect that "the Spirit of Hale will prevail" was much appreciated and, although we never looked like winning, we persuaded Aquinas into accepting a draw. But it is my belief that the 160 minutes allowed them (even though we had struggled for 205) could have been put to better effect than their defensive 141 for 2! I, for one, was very relieved by their absence of aggression after tea, for this Hale wicket is a superb batting track and Sid McKenna, having produced what many think is as good a pitch as the W.A.C.A., is to be heavily congratulated (he and his men), not only for this but for the other 4 ovals' wickets too.

In our Innings Irvine's dismissal in the first over was followed by a very meritorious 2nd wicket partnership of

55. Tragedy struck after Fallick and Bennett had raised 47 for the 4th wicket, however, for the latter was batting particularly well when the former charged down the wicket against Bennett's "No!" Fallick's phlegmatic temperament returned and he played a fine captain's knock ably assisted in the later stages by McKay and Mill

When we took the field, it soon became apparent that only McKay with his ability to move the ball both ways, could trouble the defensive bat.

So ended a memorable season, Hale's best since 1961.

THE COACH'S COMMENTS ON PLAYERS

FALLICK: Elected captain in first term after being vice-captain in third term, Ian Fallick proved a strong and popular skipper. His off driving was excellent and his defence sound, although his footwork was sometimes at fault. A very reliable mid off. As a bowler he was too erratic and never in school matches repeated the form shown when he took 8 wickets for the P.S.A. XI v Incogniti.

BENNETT: Captain in third term and vice-captain in first, Colin Bennett never let us down behind the stumps and improved as a batsman through out the season. Because he played 3 years in the 1st XI without missing a match, his place will be hard to fill, although we are likely to have Waldron as a successor.

BOLTON: Alan Bolton, through dint of practice, proved himself a very much improved player, an excellent left hand opening batsman. We are lucky indeed in the prospect of two batsmen of experience to open the innings again next year. Very good fielder.

McKAY: Promising in all three departments of the game, it was as a medium pace left hand bowler who could "think" a batsman out that he proved invaluable.

IRVINE: Although no more prolific than in the previous year, Anthony Irvine shared in 3 match winning opening partnerships and has become stronger in front of the wicket. An excellent caller of a run.

BOSICH, S. A.: Did very well as an opening bowler in 2 cup matches and fielded well in the slips.

VERYARD, V.: Too lacking in skillful variety as a fast medium left hand bowler, he was a very fine fielder and on several occasions batted well, his forward prod being notable.

SALMON, R.: While not making as many runs as hoped, Robert Salmon showed a fluency and, against Guildford (2nd Innings) and Aquinas, a fine determination. Good fielder.

MILL, D.: David (Oscar) Mill was a great-hearted character to have in the team and potentially dangerous in all departments.

SANDERSON: An economical in swinging bowler and useful bat.

SIMPSON: Rather an unlucky batsman who had weaknesses in style but who could cut as well as the best.

Also played:—

SMITH, N.: Did not advance as expected as a medium pace stock bowler although chosen for the State Colt squad.

DONOVAN: Very unlucky not to play more as, on his day, he could be a very good medium pacer who moved it both ways.

CHIEW: Fell away as a middle order batsman as the season advanced but should be very useful next year if he overcomes his tendency to slice his drives. Excellent back defensive stroke.

WALDRON: A high scorer in under 16 and house matches, he has the making of a great little cricketer.

LAWSON: A useful batsman — possible off spinner.

STONE: Didn't play Cup cricket but has immense potential as next year's off spinner. Will need to smarten up in the field though.

OWENELL: Likewise played no Cup cricket but developed into a batsman with a powerful drive.

At the commencement of the 1966 season the first XI, on paper, was a very strong side. With seven of last year's first XI players back at school the team looked forward to a successful season, but this was not to be. As in the previous year, the team did well in the first round but lacked co-ordination and teamwork in the second set of games.

At the end of the season the first XI held fourth position with Scotch. Under the coach, Mr. B. Gidney, the team had done a lot of training and the final position was not a true picture of its capabilities.

The captain of hockey was G. B. Gray.

FIRST ROUND HALE v SCOTCH

This was a very even game with Hale having the edge on Scotch. An early goal by Smith kept Hale one nil at half time. In the second half, after several inaccurate shots from their forwards, Scotch equalised. Hale remounted the attack and late in the game Wells scored to seal the match.

Result—Hale 2 defeated Scotch 1.

Best—Gray, Wells, Smith.

Goals—Smith, Wells.

HALE v GUILDFORD

Playing this game at Guildford before the 'Guildford Mud' set in allowed the Hale team to dominate play. The ball consistently went into the Guildford goal area but a goal was not scored till nearly half time when Leonhardt equalised an early Guildford goal.

The second half was a repetition of the first with Hale having most of the play but failing to score except from a short corner.

Result—Hale 2 defeated Guildford 1.

Best—Gray, Smith, McKay.

Goals—Leonhardt, Prosser.

HALE v WESLEY

This was a very hard match with both teams having equal opportunities and both defences playing very tightly. About fifteen minutes from the final whistle Wesley broke through and scored the only goal of the match.

Result—Hale 0 lost to Wesley 1.

Best—Duce, Lee, Gray.

HALE v CHRIST CHURCH

The game started slowly for Hale but the team settled down to play some very skilful hockey. An early goal was scored by Christ Church but Johnson soon equalised with a beautiful shot from a well directed pass. Christ Church, however, in the second half after a continuous attack, brought up a goal to end the game. This was perhaps one of the best games of the season, Hale being narrowly beaten by the eventual co-winning team of the competition.

Result—Hale 1 lost to Christ Church 2.

Best—Gray, Lee, Irvine.

Goal—Johnson.

HALE v AQUINAS

After the narrow defeats of the previous two weeks the Hale team went on the field with a much tougher outlook. The problem of previous weeks, the inability to score even though having plenty of chances, was still with the team. Aquinas was the first to score with about twenty minutes to go, but the Hale team rallied and took the game when Smith and Wells both scored after intelligent forward play.

Result—Hale 2 defeated Aquinas 1.

Best—Lee, Glenister, Irvine.

Goals—Smith, Wells.

SECOND ROUND

HALE v SCOTCH

The first XI came on the field with several changes in the key positions in an attempt to lift the goal scoring. These were changes for the worse and not the better, for the team was unsettled by the vastly improved Scotch side and the back line lost its usually tight grip on the game.

Result—Hale 1 lost to Scotch 4.

Best—Wells, Smith, Gray.

Goal—Greenwell.

HALE v GUILDFORD

Hale, using the four-two-four system, played good hockey and Smith goaled early for the first score of the match. Bad stick work and the breakdown of this system, however, allowed the opposition in to score.

The Hale team continued to play bad hockey and lacked drive to force themselves on.

Result—Hale 1 lost to Guildford 3.

Best—Duce, Johnson, Lee.

Goal—Smith.

HALE v WESLEY

Hale was determined to atone for the defeats of the previous two weeks and showed tremendous spirit and skill, especially in the back line. Wesley, however, managed to score a single goal and kept out the determined Hale attacks.

Result—Hale 0 lost to Wesley 1.

Best—Duce, Lee, Fowler.

Hale v CHRIST CHURCH

Christ Church attacked straight from the start, playing superior hockey against the much slower Hale team. At half time Hale was three nil down and several positional changes were made. Hale came back in the second half but could only manage to score one goal.

Result—Hale 1 lost to Christ Church 3.

Best—Leonhardt, Smith.

Goal—Smith.

HALE v AQUINAS

By this stage of the season the spirits of the team were rather low but they rose for the last game which was a great dynamic effort by all players. Aquinas had to beat Hale to win the Hockey Cup outright but the Hale defence, especially Duce in goals, played brilliantly to keep the score at a nil-all draw.

This was typical of the teams in the first XI competition where the results were very close and only 'a lucky shot' in many games gave one team the lead. It is interesting that the Hale team, even though they came fourth, was the only team not to be beaten by Aquinas.

Result—Hale 0 drew with Aquinas 0.

Best—Duce, Smith, Leonhardt, McKay.

CAPTAIN A. K. PRINCE

Rowing training in the third term of 1965 was carried out with two main objectives in view: to improve the individual skills of boys with previous rowing experience and to interest boys, especially first and second years, in rowing. By using the newly-made rowing tank at school the younger boys received training in the basic skills of rowing. More emphasis in the future must be placed on the use of this tank and the coaching of younger boys for, with the long distance between the school and the boat shed and the increasing popularity of other sports, rowing has suffered a drop in the number of boys taking up this sport.

During the early weeks of February the first VIII squad, under the coaching of Mr. R. A. Little and Mr. David Johns, settled down to the six-days-a-week training programme. The crew, however, lacked age and experience and this necessitated continual positional changes in the boat.

The Second VIII, coached by Mr. John Little, developed into a light, very skilful, but also inexperienced crew. The first four was coached by Andrew Johnson and the Second and Third Fours by David Saleeba. Our thanks must go to these Old Boys who gave up their time for the school and Mr. E. R. Prince, who did a tremendous job as Master-in-charge of rowing.

At the Hale Regatta the conditions were shocking and forced the cancellation of the invitation races but the finals of the Inter-House Fours and Championship Pairs were held. The Wilson House IV, H. Cowan (stroke), T. Doncon (3), H. Browne (2), G. House (bow) and P. Coates (cox), for the third year in a row ran out winners for the Cup, beating Parry and Stirling. D. Fowler, G. House and cox K. Reynolds rowed a skilful race to take off the Championship Pairs.

All the crews rowed in the Wesley Regatta, the First VIII, Second VIII, First IV, Second IV and Third IV filling fifth, fourth, third, fourth and fourth places respectively.

A hard, supervised physical training programme was started early in the season, consisting of exercises and distance running.

This was vitally necessary for not enough hard boat work could be done during the week days because of the time wasted travelling between the school and the sheds. Extra rowing training over Easter brought the crews up to the physical standard required for the gruelling Head of the River Races.

First Eight: C. G. Johnson (stroke), A. K. Prince (7), D. C. Fowler (6), A. D. Jamieson (5), G. B. Gray (4), R. S. Greene (3), H. K. Cowan (2), T. L. Doncon (bow), P. D. Coates (cox).

Second Eight: M. T. Goadby (stroke), P. J. Marshall (7), I. D. Darling (6), G. B. House (5), D. R. Little (4), P. S. Duce (3), L. J. Sharp (2), D. G. Atkinson (bow), G. J. Riley (cox).

ROWING 1966

(Str.) G. G. Johnson, (7) A. K. R. Prince, (6) D. C. S. Fowler, (5) A. D. Jamieson, (4) G. B. Gray, (3) R. S. B. Greene, (2) H. K. Cowan, (bow)
P. J. Marshall, T. L. Doncon (Doncon was substituted for Marshall who rowed in the 2nd VIII).
(Cox) P. D. Coates. Coaches: R. A. Little, D. John.

First Four: J. D. Cashmore (stroke), M. J. Donovan (3), P. G. Martin (2), D. E. Taylor (bow), W. L. Wallis (cox).

Second Four: G. N. Batt (stroke), R. W. Smallacombe (3), R. J. Suckling (2), R. J. Searls (bow), R. A. Browning (cox).

Third Four: G. P. Cadd (stroke), M. J. Ackland (3), K. D. Bradford (2), K. B. Parker (bow), K. C. Reynolds (cox).

"HEAD OF THE RIVER"

This year the crew was not a heavy one, and the easterly breeze which was prevailing was not to our advantage as it caused a side wash. The race was also rowed into a slight current. The conditions did not hinder the starter who lined us up fairly quickly for a successful start.

The crew hit the start all together and we took the boat away at a rating of about 42. The new oars, which we received some weeks before, no doubt helped us to gain the canvas length we did after the first forty strokes.

At the $\frac{1}{4}$ mile post we had settled down for a long hard row and our rating had dropped considerably. At this stage the other crews had levelled with us and were all fighting for the lead.

By the time we reached the half mile we had dropped behind by almost $\frac{1}{2}$ a length and the crew was feeling fatigued. At this stage the rating reached its lowest ebb and we were rating about 35 strokes to the minute. The rowing was not as smooth as it should have been and by the $\frac{3}{4}$ mile post we had dropped behind the other crews by a good length and a half.

At this stage the crew rallied themselves but, although the rating increased and we took back $\frac{1}{4}$ of a length, the other crews were rowing far too strongly for us.

For the last hundred yards we put in our final spurt but we were at this stage some lengths behind the rest of the crews. Our congratulations go to Aquinas for their good win.

In concluding, I would like to congratulate the crew for their determined effort, especially the younger inexperienced members.

Surfing

It was decided last year by the W.A.S.R.A. that an annual Schools Surfing Championship be held in order to promote the sport in Western Australia.

This year a large number of schools were represented and there were well over a hundred competitors. Each team had a maximum of ten riders and the competition was held under adverse conditions at Scarborough Beach.

A number of the Hale team were excused from the latter period of an army cadet bivouac to attend the championships. Representing the school were Peter Dyson (captain) Burke, G., Day, B., Bevan, P., Syme, R. F., Syme, R. P., Carkeek, W., Price, P., Hatley, R. and Holywell D.

A strong team from Scarborough High School won the teams championship from Christ Church (who had won the event last year). Hale was placed third. In the individual competition, Peter Dyson came a close second with 98 points.

Following the championship Dyson awarded a trophy to Rick Syme for being the most outstanding performer in the team.

The Inter School Sports, this year, were brought forward one week because of the early junior and leaving exams. The coaching of the "squad" was taken over by Mr. Pyke and Mr. Johnson. Mr. Aitken was unable to continue with the athletic coaching this year because of other commitments.

The Athletic Camp was again held at Point Peron on the first weekend back at school, although this year on a different basis—coaching during this time was concentrated upon event training—although fitness was still of prime importance. The camp was a great success in that as well as getting them in full stride for the season it bound the boys into a team.

Geoff Hodsdon was elected captain of athletics and Stan Wells as vice captain.

The athletics started well with the State Cross Country Championships held at Perry Lakes. The open team performed excellently to gain 2nd place in their relay.

In respect of these championships, congratulations must be given to G. Harris, M. R. Blizard and. R. Shipway for their great efforts.

SCHOOL CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

COURSE—U/14, u/15, u/16—2 miles of bush, sand and obstacles. Open, 2 miles of sandy and hilly ground plus 1 mile of limestone track.

Results:

U/14—Shipway 1, R. Roberts 2, D. Love 3. Time: 13min. 31.8sec.

U/15—Camilleri 1, Burcher 2, Martello 3. Time: 13min. 15.6sec.

U/16—Scott 1, Isaachsen 2, Clifton 3. Time: 13min. 3sec.

U/17—Blizard 1, Harris 2, Cashmore 3. Time: 16min. 33.1sec. (record).

OPEN—Wells 1, Candy 2, Dyson 3. Time: 17min. 45.1.

ATHLETIC MEETING

Venue: Hale School.

Competitors: Hale v Marist Brothers and Trinity.

Conditions: Fine—very little wind.

was only for 1st and 2nd year competitors.

D. K. Hollywell did excellently in the U/15 long jump to clear 18ft. 9in.

Best Performances on the Day:

J. G. Mills—U/16 high jump, height: 5ft. 3in.

S. G. Scott—U/16 long jump, dist.: 19ft. 7in.

G. Davies—U/14 high jump, height: 5ft.

Generally Hale filled most places in most events. This showed a promising depth in our team.

On the Friday, a meet was held against John Forrest and Belmont. It Hale v Churchlands, Kent Street, and Scarborough.

Venue: Hale School.

Conditions: Overcast and very windy which made fast times very difficult.

Best Performances:

S. Wells—1500 metres open, Time: 4min. 22sec.

G. Harris—1500 metres U/17, Time: 4min. 19sec.

Again Hale acquitted themselves very well against the other schools—and against the bad conditions. Many of the athletes were almost at their peak and this was a good sign with the "Inters" only two weeks off.

This year, both the House Sports and the Championship track events were in metres. Thus, all track events winners were inaugural record holders. The field events—Long jump, high jump, shot putt—were still measured in feet and inches.

INTER HOUSE SPORTS

Held on 20th October

Conditions: Hot, very little wind — ideal for athletics.

The house sports this year were postponed until this date because of wet conditions on the original sports day (8th October).

It was held on the same basis as last year — every boy having to run 100 metres, 200 metres and compete in one field event. There were, of course, a number of divisions in each event and equal points were allotted for each division.

Buntine House ran out winners with a total of 1165 and it was generally a highly successful day for all concerned. Congratulations must be given to those organisers who made such a successful day possible.

STATE SCHOOL BOYS
CHAMPIONSHIPS

Held at Perry Lakes:
Saturday 5th November.

The heats were held in the morning when the conditions were ideal for good times — but slowly the breeze strengthened and, by the afternoon, when the finals were in full swing, it was a very strong headwind. As last year, Aquinas had a huge number of competitors and spectators.

Steve Scott showed outstanding form in winning the 200 metres and 100 metres and coming a close second in the u/16 broad jump. His 200 metre time was the fastest recorded in the finals.

Dave Mill ran brilliantly to comfortably win the u/19 400 metres in a good time.

Dave Holywell, although hampered by an injured muscle, managed a good third in the u/15 100 metres.

Results:

U/19—Dave Mill: 1st in 400 metres. Time: 50.7sec.

U/16—Stephen Scott: 1st in 200 metres. Time: 23.5sec.; 1st in 100 metres. Time: 11.6sec.; 2nd in Broad Jump. Dist.: 20ft. 3½in.

U/15—Dave Holywell: 3rd in u/15 100 metres.

Open Relay—Hale 2nd.

62nd INTER SCHOOL SPORTS

Held on the 15th of October at Perry Lakes

Conditions—Fine, ideal conditions for Athletics.

Results: All track event times were held as inaugural records.

Hale did well to come a good third against such strong opposition. Congratulations must go to Aquinas for their magnificent win.

Outstanding performances from the Hale team were given by:

D. Mill, who won the 1st Division, open 400 metres and the 2nd Division 800 metres in a faster time than that of the 1st Division.

S. Scott, who had wins in the u/16 100 metres, 200 metres and Broad Jump.

D. Holywell, who won the u/15 100 and 200 metres.

Results: Only the winner, Hale placing and the winning time will be shown.

COACH'S REPORT

The year 1966 has been an outstanding one for sport at Hale School. With Darlot and Alcock Cup successes and a well-merited second in the swimming, it was confidently predicted that the athletic team would perform creditably at the Inters. This, in fact, occurred and the team could be regarded as a little unlucky to find itself pitted against the great all-round strength of Aquinas College. However, let us be realistic — only the victors deserve plaudits and praise. The losers must be content with the satisfaction that they have fought courageously. The athletic team, under the responsible leadership of Geoff Hodsdon and Stan Wells, did just this. As a unit, they were untiring in their efforts to bring success to the school.

The athletic season began in second term with the cross country championships. Teams representing the school performed reasonably well in these events but, because of clashes with other sports, were somewhat depleted. The future policy to include cross country running as a second term sport option should see improvements in this sphere next year.

The camp conducted at Pt. Peron during the first weekend of third term was one of the highlights of the year. The assistance given by a large group of Old Boys during this time constitutes a gesture of which the school can be very proud. The lift that their presence gave the team, both at this camp and on Inters day itself, was markedly evident. Talks and demonstrations given by prominent coaches of the Amateur Athletics Association were also well received. My thanks are due to those members of the teaching staff who set the pattern for an outstanding venture.

The programme of meetings leading to the Inters gave the team necessary competition. Thanks are given to high schools such as John Forrest, Belmont, Churchlands, Kent Street and Scarborough, together with Trinity and Marist Colleges, for accepting our invitation to attend a series of meetings at Hale School.

The Inters provided us with many fine examples of what Hale School boys can do if they set their minds to it. Outstanding members of the team were given exacting programmes, but in all cases fully justified our faith in them. They are the boys who serve their school as they consider it should be served. They are the boys who are set as examples to others who may consider themselves more important than the team.

In conclusion, my gratitude must be expressed to other coaches who have contributed greatly to various sections of the team. Especially I am indebted to Mr. R. Johnson for his untiring devotion to athletics in this school. We are fortunate to have such a dedicated and enthusiastic man to continue these pursuits in future years.

TENNIS-

The Tennis season at Hale School began on a solid foundation, laid during the 1965 season. Our aim was to retain the "Wilfred Corr Cup."

In addition to those returning from 1965, the school's tennis team received an additional asset in Russell Candy, a boy from Kalgoorlie, who has had success in Metropolitan Tournaments.

Once again the school teams were in the hands of Mr. Max Bonner, one of the State's leading tennis coaches, without whose enthusiasm and great drive, I feel, we would not have had the success we did.

As in the previous two years, W. G. Hodsdon was appointed Captain of Tennis.

doubles combination slaughtered their opponents, conceding only one game. In the first doubles match the Scotch pair were too strong but Hale was able to obtain 6 games. Thus Hale ran out winners by the small margin of 3 games.

Congratulations must go to R. Candy and M. D. Hodsdon for their efforts in this match.

Other Results:

2nd IV—Hale 6 rubbers d. Scotch 0 rubbers.

2nd year—Hale 11 sets d. Scotch 1 set.

1st year—Hale 5 sets lost to Scotch 7 sets.

HALE v SCOTCH

The first match of the season was against the strong Scotch College team, and it was this team that Hale would have to defeat to win the cup.

Both teams were confident and, after the four singles matches had been played, Scotch led by two games, the match being even on sets and rubbers. The Hale School second

HALE v GUILDFORD GRAMMAR

The school team had its first experience of really soft courts for the season when it played Guildford at Guildford. These courts were a lot softer than those at Wesley in 1965, when a couple of our players took some time to settle down. But this was not to be the case at Guildford. The players approached the game enthusiastically and received their

Other Results:

2nd year—Hale 10 sets d. Guildford 2 sets.

1st year—Hale 12 sets d. Guildford 0 sets.

After its convincing win against Guildford the week before, the School Team felt confident that it could repeat the performance against the not too strong Wesley team. This it did conceding only 1 rubber and running out winners, 5 rubbers to 1 rubber.

Other Results:

2nd IV—Hale 4 rubbers d. Wesley 2 rubbers.

2nd year—Hale 0 sets lost to Wesley 12 sets.

1st year—Hale 6 sets d. Wesley 6 sets (by two games).

HALE v CHRIST CHURCH

During the week preceding this match, which would be a hard one, Russell Candy injured his shoulder and was told that he would not be available for any further matches. Therefore the team was weakened by his loss, but because there were many good younger players in the school, we were able to furnish quite a strong team. John Bougher came into the team as No. 4 and Malcolm Hodsdon moved up to play at No. 3.

As was anticipated, this match developed into a very close contest with two of the singles matches being of 3 sets. But, once again due to the good performances of the No. 3 and 4 players Hale pulled through to win by 4 rubbers to 2 rubbers.

Other Results:

2nd IV—Hale 4 rubbers d. Christ Church 2 rubbers.

2nd year—Hale 9 sets d. Christ Church 3 sets.

3rd IV—Hale 6 rubbers d. Christ Church 0 rubbers.

1st year—Hale 7sets d. Christ Church 5 sets.

HALE v AQUINAS

With four wins behind them, Hale could not lose the "Corr Cup" but it could tie with Scotch and Aquinas in a three-way tie if it lost the last match at Hale.

Bruce Badge, Captain of the No. 2 team, was promoted from the 2nds to replace John Bougher at No. 4 and the team met Aquinas with as strong a team as it had had the previous week.

The Hale Boys, not wishing to tie the Cup, commenced playing the singles with great determination. At the end of the singles they led 4 rubbers to nil and could not be defeated. But they didn't finish there; they won the remaining two doubles matches to make it a clean sweep 6 rubbers to nil.

Other Results:

2nd IV—Hale 7 sets d. Aquinas 5 sets.

2nd year—Hale 3 sets lost to Aquinas 9 sets.

1st year—Hale lost.

SLAZENGER CUP,
MURCELL SHIELD,

HERBERT EDWARDS CUP

With the large number of boys playing Tennis this year, Hale were able to field a large number of teams, all of which were reasonably strong.

Hale had one team in the Slazenger Cup which is an open age group event, three teams in the Murcell Shield, which is a "B" division of the Slazenger Cup, and two teams in the Herbert Edwards Cup, which is an under 15 age group event.

As the competitions neared completion, it looked as though Hale School were going to figure prominently in the finals of the Slazenger Cup and the Murcell Shield.

Two of Hale's three teams in the Murcell Shield had reached the semi-finals and it looked as though they could play each other in the final, which would have been a great achievement, but this was not to be:

both teams were beaten in closely contested matches.

In the Slazenger Cup, Hale School reached the final and were drawn to meet Scotch College, whom they had defeated earlier in the season. In this match, which was very close with several three set matches, Scotch eventually ran out winners of the Slazenger Cup for 1966.

SWIMMING

The 1966 season was not so crowded as last year's but swimmers were thankful for three competitions, all being successful and proving valuable as highly competitive events. These enabled swimmers to see where they stood in the Hale team as well as in relation to outside competitors.

Terry Barr and Greg Jones held the positions of captain of swimming and vice captain respectively.

Mr. Poake and the Reverend Davis again gave their valuable services as coaches and both must be thanked for doing an excellent job.

The squad in general trained well but didn't realize that the "Inters" could be theirs if they trained hard. The boys remained satisfied with a low standard of fitness and the fact that the whole team wasn't fit proved to be our downfall. This could be seen as race after race was lost in the last few yards.

Spirit was not lacking in the team; all the swimmers were interested in their team-mates and had the sense and the strength of mind to resist the temptation to watch the "Inters" rather than rest in the changerooms.

Many parents helped during the season, Mr. Boyle in particular who massaged the team on the "Inters" night.

After the "Inters", a barbecue was held at the Hale Pool and the success of this was due to the help which the parents gave.

INTER SCHOOL SWIMMING SPORTS

Held at Beatty Park Aquatic Centre, 12th March

A packed stadium saw Guildford just snatch victory away from Hale in the last race of the night. Hale's score was 16 pts. behind that of Guildford after it had won four of the five relays. The open relay was the deciding race but the over zealous Hale team was disqualified. Congratulations to Mr. T. Barber and J. Allen for producing a winning team.

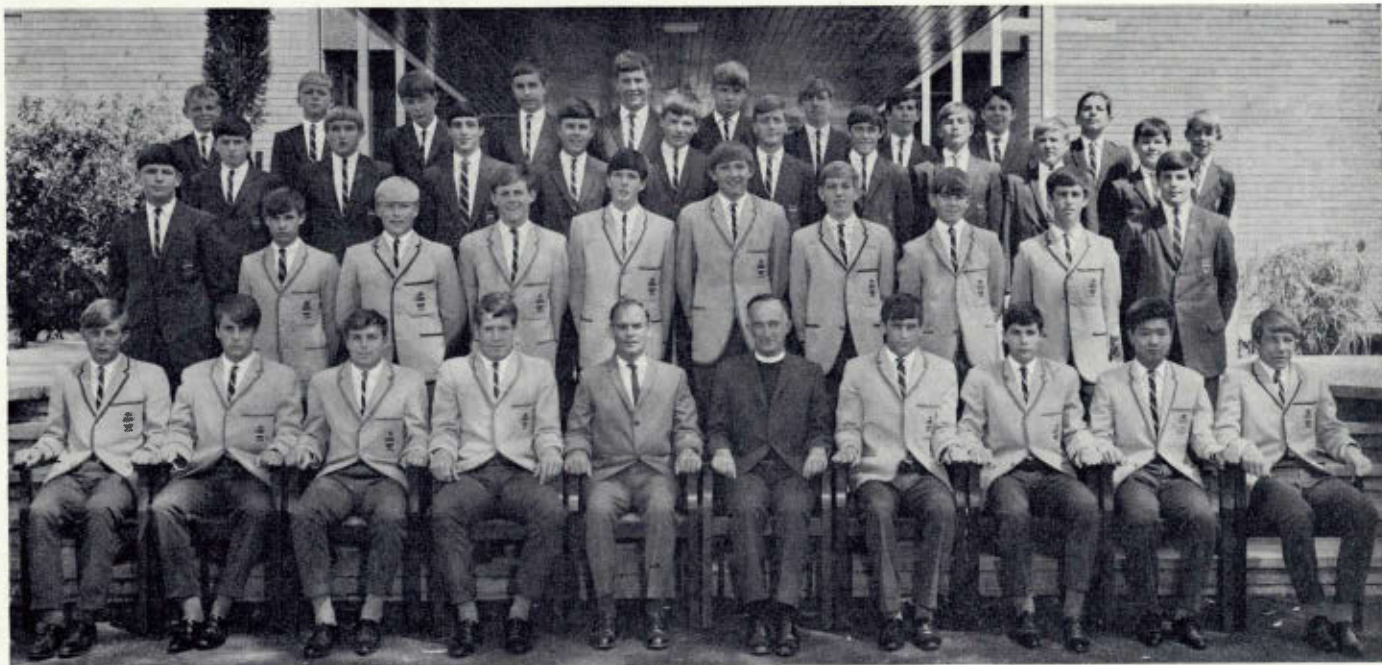

Final scores were as follows:

1. GUILDFORD 372 pts.
2. HALE 331 pts.
3. AQUINAS 251 pts.
4. WESLEY 205 pts.
5. CHRIST CHURCH .. 204 pts.
6. SCOTCH 156 pts.

Outstanding Performances

M. Wheat was an outstanding swimmer, winning the under 15 110 yard freestyle in a record time of 61.2sec. and the 110 yard backstroke in a record time of 33.6sec.

The relay teams followed the standard set by last year's teams and set new records in the under 16, under 15 and under 13, the under 14 team winning also. This means that Hale now holds all relay records.

INTER HOUSE SWIMMING CARNIVAL

The Inter House Swimming Carnival was held for the second year with a programme which included a B division. This proved extremely successful and a high standard of swimming was achieved.

The carnival was highly organised and ran smoothly due to Mr. Poake's work and the masters who officiated on the day.

HOUSE SWIMMING

The carnival was held on Tuesday, March 15th in perfect conditions and in the Hale Pool. Mrs. M. S. Barr made the presentation of trophies.

Life Saving

Training for Life-Saving commenced under the able direction of Mr. D. Poake and Mr. R. Davis soon after the Inter-School Swimming Sports had been held at Beatty Park.

Shortly afterwards Greg Jones was selected to be captain of Life-Saving and Terry Barr was chosen as vice-captain. Under their leadership admirable results were achieved.

The Madame de Mouncey Memorial Cup and the MacFarlane Cup were won by Guildford Grammar School while Wesley College won the Law Society Shield and the Connolly Cup.

The Teams were:

COACH'S REPORT

Awards: This year has been the most ambitious for awards. One hundred boys undertook training and sixty were successful. The younger boys will sit for the examinations in third term 1966.

Whilst there has been more enthusiasm this year, Hale cannot yet claim to be a strong Life-Saving school. The other colleges take many more awards, for they make Life-Saving a compulsory part of the Physical Education programme.

Competitive:—State Life-Saving Championships.

Law Shield: March 26th

Our congratulations go to J. Miller, J. Schaffer, F. Wood and W. Thomas of Wesley College for their fine work in what was, undoubtedly, the most exciting final of the day, Guildford were the favorites for this event.

Hale Life-Saving teams again made the finals, but did not have the strength to bring home victory.

On March 31st a Lifesaving Display was held at Beatty Park in honour of a visit by the Queen Mother. Various life-saving routines were demonstrated and teams competed from various schools. Representatives from Hale were:

M. Wheat, 110 yards Freestyle; E. Isaachsen, 110 yards Backstroke; K. Taylor, 110 yards Butterfly.

Qualified Members of the Royal Life Saving Society:

Whilst every effort has been made to keep correct records, some boys have taken awards outside the school. Such errors and omissions can be corrected in future editions if award holders will notify the school.

It was not Hale's year.

After two years as Rugby Champions we had to accept defeat at the hands of schools we had defeated conclusively in every match since 1963.

We had no try-scoring stars like Scott, Turnbull, Kuhn and Brighton, but it was not a poor team by any means. The fact is that the over-all standard of P.S.A. Rugby has improved to a remarkable extent. All schools now field teams which play with system and skill and which include many players of real talent.

All credit to the new champions—Christ Church. They fielded a big, fast, determined side, well disciplined in sound Rugby methods; and they deserved their success.

Congratulations to Stephan Bosich and Colin Griffiths who won selection in the State Schoolboys' side and, in a wonderful tour to Sydney, played in every match and acquitted themselves most creditably.

As to Hale's team in general, it is fair to say we fielded one of the best packs of tight forwards and the slowest backline in the competition. Most orthodox backline movements died simply through lack of pace, and our boys were too inexperienced to overcome this difficulty by unorthodox moves. Many of the team were complete novices when the season began and it took them most of the first round to gain any confidence at all.

No team could have been more enthusiastic at training. They made themselves extremely fit and outscored their opposition in the second half of nearly every match. They learnt well and at times employed excellent tactics to score against teams of superior ability.

Terry Mill filled the role of captain and managed his team well. His tactical kicking was excellent and towards the end of the season he found that he could score tries. With more dash and confidence and some tackling, Terry could be a great player for the school next year.

Our trio of tight, tough forwards, Kevin Prince, Stephan Bosich and Colin Griffiths were lion-hearted workers and were always among the best players on the field.

Guy Van Hazel volunteered to learn to be a scrum half, and by the end of the season was the best half in the competition. Always courageous and cool-headed, he was practically never caught in possession and his passes were strong and accurate.

Mal Fulwood was our only try-scoring speedster and his tackling was exemplary.

Ian Ferguson proved to be the best hooker in the competition. He improved greatly in his loose play, was selected in a combined P.S.A. side and, in the game against a visiting Sydney team, was one of the best on the field.

Four complete novices won their way into the first XV: Bob Searls the most devastating tackler in the side, Mike Allen an intelligent tireless worker, Phil Dudarec our only elusive player and Phil Evans, a beautiful ball handler with natural speed and grace.

Geoff Heitman could not have worked harder and was justly rewarded by scoring many tries.

Greg Jones, as full-back, lacked the experience to be consistent in such an exposed position but at times played very well and landed some remarkable goals.

"Veterans" Terry Barr, Peter Dyson and Dave Boyle willingly filled a variety of positions in our attempts to build a sound team. Their work was greatly appreciated.

The youngest player in the side was Bill Rowbotham and his line-out play was a great asset. He should develop into a strong forward.

Despite our lack of success, all the Rugby squad thoroughly enjoyed this season. Rugby is a game designed for the enjoyment of the players and it does not take long for a new recruit to become an addict. Even training can be fun.

The fine sportsmanship of every team in the competition (including traditionally bitter rivals) contributed a great deal towards the pleasure of all concerned with P.S.A. Rugby this year.

The Second XV, capably led by Bill Ilbery, enjoyed a fine season, losing only to Christ Church and finishing second.

We also fielded, for the first time, an under-16 team which gave the smaller lads valuable experience against boys of their own age.

These teams produced some very promising young players and our hopes are high for next season.

VISIT BY THE BRITISH LIONS

We were honoured to have the British Isles Rugby Union team train on our ground. It was an education to see these mighty men — some of the greatest sportsmen in the world — handle, run and kick with such superb skill.

The players were most helpful and obliging, and their coach, Jack Robbins, stayed behind after his team left to coach members of our squad.

THE OLD BOYS' GAME

With dozens of Old Haleians playing Club Rugby, the Old Boys are now able to field a very good side. The boys of the school were delighted to see such a fine group of Old Boys turn out to play them on Old Boys' Day. Unfortunately few of last year's stars were able to play, but it was a most enjoyable game played with surprising vigour.

Lack of cohesion among the Old Boys allowed the School to win 11-3. John Turnbull, Peter Pearson, Ron Male, Peter Lummis and Mike Watts played very strongly for the Old Boys.

INTER HOUSE RUGBY

For the first time Hale this year had Inter-House Rugby. Mr. K. S. Jones presented a trophy and a knock-out seven-a-side competition was organized. It was a resounding success.

The players, including quite a number who had never played Rugby before, thoroughly enjoyed themselves while a large number of spectators cheered themselves hoarse, and enjoyed a few good laughs as well.

The final was fought out between Buntine and Wilson, with just about every boarder frantically barracking for Wilson. Buntine, however, was a little too fast and tackled excellently.

Greg Jones' big kicks had Wilson running back so far so frequently that finally they were just too weary to resist any longer.

INTER-SCHOOL MATCHES

FIRST ROUND

v SCOTCH

1st XV lost 0-15

Despite marked superiority in forward play and a wealth of possession, Hale could not score. Our backs had no penetration and did not think. Scotch played smooth efficient Rugby.

Best: Bosich, Ferguson, Griffiths, Van Hazel, Mill.

2nd XV won 6-0

v GUILDFORD

1st XV lost 5-12

Hale's weak tackling allowed Guildford to race to an early lead by scoring two tries in the first ten minutes. Gradually Hale regained its shattered confidence and finished the game out-playing Guildford — too late.

Mill scored the try and Jones converted.

Best: Bosich, Griffiths, Fulwood.

2nd XV won 27-3

v WESLEY

1st XV won 31-3

A drastically altered side played with great dash against fairly weak opposition. No less than seven of the team scored in a fine exhibition of teamwork.

Best: Prince, Ferguson, Bosich, Griffiths, Van Hazel, Fulwood.

2nd XV won 51-0

Under 16's lost to Mt. Lawley 0-33

v CHRIST CHURCH

1st XV lost 3-11

A tremendously courageous display. The score was 3 all with ten minutes to play, when Hale lost Boyle through injury and then made two costly mistakes on which the efficient Christ Church team was quick to capitalize. Dudarec and Allen tackled heroically.

Best: Dudarec, Allen, Bosich, Griffiths, Prince, Mill.

2nd XV lost 0-6

Under 16's lost to Christ Church 6-12

v AQUINAS

1st XV lost 8-9

On form, this one should have been easy for Hale, but Aquinas showed just how much can be accomplished by determination, fire and aggression. A penalty for a late tackle in the last few minutes gave Aquinas a well-merited win.

Best: Evans, Searls, Prince.

2nd XV win 28-3

Under 16 lost 3-13

SECOND ROUND

v SCOTCH

1st XV lost 8-19

A game similar to that in the first of the season, except that in a thrilling last ten minutes Allen and Rowbotham both scored against a weary Scotch side.

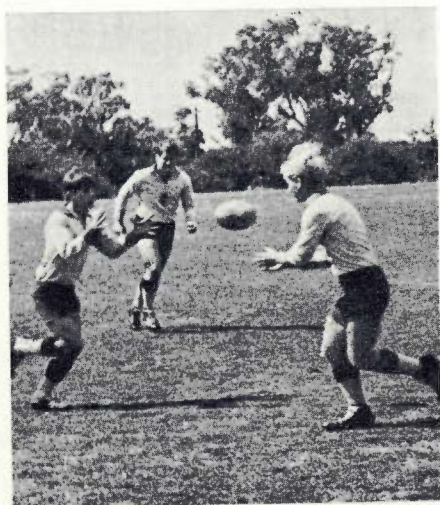

2nd XV nil all draw

Under 16 lost to Kalamunda 0-9

v GUILDFORD

1st XV won 11-6

Determined to play a good first half, the team started with great dash and played well to defeat a team which had defeated Christ Church the previous week. Mill's tactical kicking set up a fine try for Fulwood, and Mill also landed two penalty goals.

RIGHT: Mel. Fulwood in full cry.

BOTTOM LEFT: These are not our forwards, unfortunately! They are British Lions in our ground.

Best: Mill, Fulwood, Dyson, Van Hazel, Prince, Ferguson.

2nd XV won 6-0

Under 16 lost to Swanbourne 3-15

v WESLEY

1st XV won 17-5

Hale's best game. Wesley played most creditably and their defence was excellent. Allen and Barr backed-up tirelessly to create openings and every try was intelligently engineered.

Best: Dudarec, Allen, Barr, Ferguson, Mill, Van Hazel.

2nd XV won 30-0

Under 16 lost to Hollywood 0-14

v CHRIST CHURCH

1st XV lost 8-18

The champions were too strong in the forwards and scored well from hard-running movements by loose forwards. Allen and Dudarec both notched fine tries.

Best: Searls, Prince, Van Hazel, Mill, Allen, Dudarec.

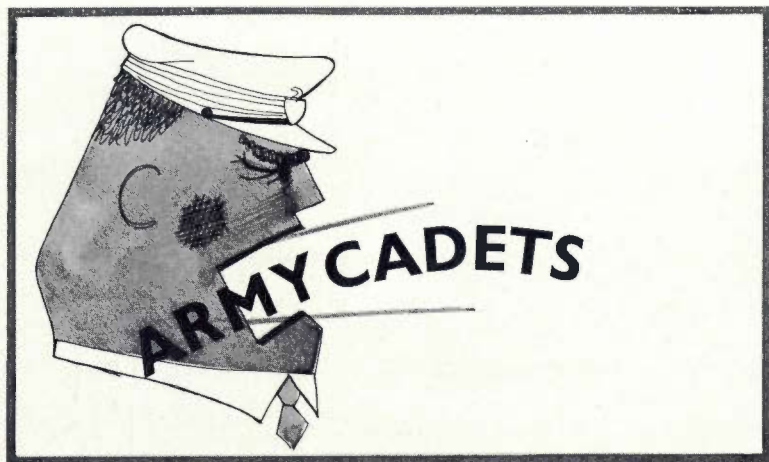

2nd XV lost 3-11

v AQUINAS

1st XV lost 8-20

Hale wilted badly under the relentless Aquinas attack.

2nd XV won 13-0

FIRST TERM

The cadet year commenced in first term with the following promotions from the annual Christmas training camps at Northam.

To C.U.O.'s:—Sgt. Dean, Sgt. Owenell, Sgt. Bennett, Cpl. Barr, Cpl. Scott, Cpl. Bromfield (later in the year) Sub Lieut. Leonhardt.

To Sgts.:—Cpl. Ilbery, Cpl. Jeffery, L/Cpl. Smith, L/Cpl. Fethers, L/Cpl. Evans, L/Cpl. Nutchey, L/Cpl. Massey, Cpl. Mann, L/Cpl. Fowler.

To R.S.M.:—Cpl. Mill.

To C.S.M.:—Cpl. Lambert.

To C.Q.M.S.:—Cpl. Duce.

To Band Major:—Cpl. Dyson.

This year saw many changes come into the cadet unit. Firstly, the unit had received permission from the Army to increase its size to 200 cadets, and thus the composition of the unit for the year was 4 first year platoons, 1 second year platoon, 1 specialist platoon and the Band.

With the increase in size it was decided that the unit should be operated on a two company basis; the first years comprised the Rifle Company; the second years, specialists, and band comprised the Specialist Company.

Once again the unit was supervised by Capt. Wheeler and Lieut. Macmillan; however, in addition, two young old boys, namely Lieutenants Liddell and Pearson, gave much practical help to the unit mainly through new ideas gained from their own C.M.F. training. Here we must not forget the tireless work of Lieut. Stone and Major Taylor, who dealt with the administrative side of the unit most aptly.

With the disbandment of the Navy Unit, a small influx of boys was received with the addition of a C.U.O. and some N.C.O's.

In reviewing the term it was generally felt that the unit was making steady progress, and the efficiency reached was on the whole above average.

SECOND TERM

Normal parades continued through the term. In July the annual Bivouac was held at Northam and thus the first years had a taste of things to come, which later proved advantageous. The Bivouac was conducted extremely successfully, with the bearing of the first years in all respects improving out of sight.

By the time the Annual Camp was to commence the unit had become efficient in all departments and there was much optimism as to its success.

N.C.O's. AND C.U.O's.

BACK ROW: (l to r) Sgt. T. J. Jeffery, L/Cpl. G. B. House, Cpl. M. J. Burr, L/Cpl. T. V. Blaxell, L/Cpl. M. G. Michelides, L/Cpl. W. L. Wallis, L/Cpl. C. P. Allen, Cpl. N. W. Treadgold, Cpl. C. R. Glenister, Sgt. G. E. Mann.

3rd ROW: Sgt. D. C. Fowler, Cpl. P. J. Marshall, Cpl. B. M. Shenn, Cpl. S. G. Scott, Cpl. L. J. Sharp, Cpl. G. J. Riley, Cpl. M. O. Walters, Cpl. V. A. Veryard, Cpl. D. C. Atkinson, Cpl. S. S. McAlinden, Cpl. M. J. Goadby, Cpl. H. K. Cowan, Sgt. J. R. Ilbery.

2nd ROW: R.S.M. D. J. Mill, C/QMS. M. R. Fulwood, Sgt. P. C. M. Evans, Sgt. P. J. Giambazi, Sgt. D. E. Taylor, Sgt. J. B. Massey, Sgt. P. D. Candy, Sgt. N. H. Smith, Sgt. G. J. Wilkinson, Sgt. L. B. Craig, Sgt. P. M. Nutchey, Sgt. A. E. Fethers, (Band Major P. J. Dyson), C/QMS. P. S. K. Duce, C.S.M. P. D. Lambert.

SITTING: C.U.O. J. G. Owenell, C.U.O. T. M. Barr, C.U.O. G. C. Scott, C.U.O. C. L. Bennett, Major A. R. Taylor, Cpt. H. C. Wheeler, Lt. A. J. Macmillan, Lt. R. W. Liddell, C.U.O. S. E. Dean, C.U.O. R. H. Bromfield, C.U.O. R. P. Leonhardt.

CAMP

The whole period of camp was blessed with fine weather this year and the unit took full advantage of it in completing tight curriculums. Specialist Company conducted a highly successful bivouac, which was organised by Lieut. Pearson with the help of the "regulars". After completing a gruelling compass march, the cadets met at a predetermined tea spot. After sunset, night manoeuvres commenced, mainly in the form of mock battles, harbouring, and holding down positions against enemy attack.

The Rifle Company held several successful night manoeuvres in the form of lantern stalks, scout work and similar exercises. Here the cadets had the opportunity to put theory into practice.

All the cadets fired the Bren on the mini range, and in addition all the officers and N.C.O's. fired the Owen machine carbine.

Meanwhile, the routine work of camp was being carried on in an energetic manner and the culmination of all this work was to be seen in the units' display in the March Out Parade on the Sunday.

This year the unit was determined to do well as it did not have a chance to compete against the other schools the previous year. The high spirit in the unit by the Sunday typified the success of the camp. The unit's bearing and drill on the day was unquestionably brilliant and everyone was proud to be a member of the unit. The fine performance did not go unseen and many congratulations were received from critical observers.

Thus camp ended for the year on a well-deserved high note.

PASSING OUT PARADE

This Parade was viewed as the most important of the year for a number of reasons, and once again the cadets applied themselves to the task of achieving an immaculate standard of drill and bearing.

At this year's Passing Out Parade, the unit flag — a milestone in the history of the unit — was to be formally presented. Thus the parade increased in complexity a great deal as the format for the handing over ceremony had to be learned. The parade was lengthened in time and this threw an added strain on the cadets.

In the week prior to the parade, three practices were held including the flag presentation ceremony, and on Friday the complete rehearsal saw only one or two minor mistakes. The cadets had had impressed upon them the importance of the parade and also the fact that a very good year should be finished off well.

On the Saturday, the day dawned overcast and with threatening rain clouds about. With luck on our side the rain held off, but conditions were still unpleasant, mainly due to a strong wind. However, undaunted by the conditions, the unit proceeded to put on an expert display right from the outset. The unit again marched past in line and then they capped off an extended parade of unequalled steadiness with a fine display of precision marching and drill on the march.

Brigadier Newberry was the Commanding Inspector. In his speech he pointed out the great obligations of the youth of today and also complimented the unit on one of the finest parades he had witnessed. He then presented the Tobruk Trophy to Sgt. Jeffery who was a popular choice.

Also attending the parade was Bishop Riley who blessed the unit flag.

As is now customary, the band gave an exemplary display after the unit had marched off, and so the parade was concluded most admirably.

Thus the year terminated with a newly set pinnacle in Hale School Cadet Unit Parades and was a fitting conclusion to a most eventful and successful year.

On behalf of the unit, I would like to acknowledge the work put into the unit by Capt. Wheeler, Lieut. Stone, Lieut. Macmillan, Major Taylor, Lieut. Liddell and Lieut. Pearson throughout the year.

THE BAND

The Hale School cadet drum band consists of a drum major, nine drummers and fifteen pipers.

The band this year has performed extremely well, due to the good leadership of Drum-Major Dyson and his assistants — Sgt. Candy, Sgt. Giambazi and Cpl. Shenn.

Much hard work was put in by the new recruits to attain the necessary standard, and finally the band was able to play eighteen tunes. Because of this ability and because of the good turnout and marching standard, the band was chosen to lead the C.M.F. through the streets of Perth on A.N.Z.A.C. Day.

The band attended the annual August camp which was concluded with a marching out parade involving several of the leading schools in the state. The Hale cadet band combined with the Christ Church fife band and a very good pattern of march was displayed.

To complete the cadet year the band played at the marching out parade at Hale. It was stated by many of the guests that "the band was by far the best, in regard to drill and general standards, in the entire cadet unit."

THE DISBANDMENT OF
T. S. CYGNET

The Sea Cadet Corps which was established six years ago and whose efforts culminated in the winning of the State Colours in 1965 has been forced to disband due to administrative difficulties.

CHESS CLUB. — G. Campbell

Under the patronage of Mr. Loveland, thirty-five boys met every Friday afternoon in what could be classed as "light-hearted" Chess Matches. Nevertheless, this atmosphere was conducive to some particularly good games. As a result, many of us, who were comparative beginners at the commencement of the year, had shown great improvement by the end of third term.

During first term a team, consisting of G. Campbell, S. Saunders, W. Petersen and P. Dudarec, was entered in the W.A. Chess Association's Junior League Tournament. Though we met little success at the beginning of the tournament, perhaps due to lack of practice, the standard of play improved throughout the year and in the concluding stages three difficult opponents had been beaten in succession.

A welcome addition to Chess Club Stocks was the monthly, Australia-wide magazine, "Chess in Australia", which was read with interest.

Once again our thanks go to Mr. Loveland for his assistance throughout the year and it is hoped that the boys will continue to show enthusiasm in their chess.

DEBATING SOCIETY

President: Greg Johnson, Secretary: Bill Peterson, Master-In-Charge: Mr. Ashman.

Firstly, thanks must be given to Mr. Ashman who, as master-in-charge, greatly helped the society and contributed to its successful year.

The internal debates were dominated by Steven Saunders whose wit and logic gave inevitable victory to any team that he was on.

The highlight of the debating year was a gathering at St. Hilda's in October. In the fourth year debate our chaps, Nigel Treadgold, Geoff Harris and Lynton Sharp (leader), convinced the adjudicator that women should receive equal pay for equal work, despite tough opposition from the girls. The fifth year debate on the same night was won by St. Hilda's. The subject of the debate, nonsensical but amusing, was "Should Elephants be Four Inches High?" At the conclusion of this debate, the Hale boys presented the girls with a reminder (a 4in. elephant). Greg Johnson moved a vote of thanks to St. Hilda's for the debate and the supper.

The success of this year's debating club should, we hope, activate a wider interest and participation in the future.

JUNIOR EXAMINATION GROUP

— Mr. Constantine.

An unusual group was established this year under the "Activity" organisation — a Junior English Group. Those who had not reached the required standard undertook to analyse their individual difficulties. A number of tests were given and from these general and individual weaknesses were revealed. Remedial exercises were then set.

The emphasis throughout the year has been on written work to encourage technical accuracy in word usage and punctuation and coherence and fluency of expression. Enthusiasm throughout has been high and all members of the Group have made considerable progress.

METAL WORK — C. Griffiths.

This year's Club functioned successfully, with the addition of some new equipment, including an Arc Welding Plant and comprehensive oxy-acetylene equipment which enables two people to work simultaneously. The School also purchased assorted tools and a stock of steel welding rods and plate.

The Club's workshop was situated in the Agricultural Science shed, which is also used by the non-academic students for metal-work and motor mechanics.

Every boy in the Club was taught to arc-weld and use the oxy-acetylene equipment. Many articles were made, such as a garden chair, fernery, two barbeques, many surfboard racks, a tow-bar for a 1929 Chevrolet and a three-legged sprinkler.

Many thanks to Mr. Johnson for his kind assistance and valuable time.

ART CLUB — K. Hutchinson

Membership of the Art Club was quite high at the beginning of the 1st Term (No doubt many thought that the "Art" Club was a cover for a "Slackers" Club). However, this section of the school was proved wrong. Efforts were mainly concentrated on clay modelling and, later on in the term, some boys took to charcoal drawings.

2nd Term proved to be as active as 1st with the advent of Junk Art and Wire Sculpture. In the later part of the term the "Visual Education" Club was formed as a branch of the Art Club, also run by Mr. Loftus, and many senior boys attended Slide Showings, which concentrated on archeology, architecture, industrial design, town-planning, and the patterns and harmonies which abound in the world around us.

By 3rd Term "Visual education" slide material was exhausted and activities returned to the Art Room.

Over all, some good work has been turned out throughout the year, especially in the clay modelling field.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY

In second term the Inter-Schools Dramatic Society held a three day festival in the Hale hall. Twelve schools combined to show a number of productions. Hale's cast combined with that of St. Mary's, Aquinas with that of St. Bridgedines, Guildford Grammar School with Perth College and Christian Brothers College with St. Mary's Convent of Mercy.

The performances were watched by a panel of adjudicators, who on the following Saturday gave their opinions on the productions.

Our production was "Pullman Car Hiawatha", written by Thornton Wilder. There was little scenery required, but the lighting crew did a wonderful job, with over fifty cues in the twenty minutes.

Following this, Mr. Prince chose a major play for the year, "The White Sheep of the Family". The first rehearsal was held in July; however the play had to be abandoned, as difficulties were experienced due to examinations. It is proposed to put this very humorous production on in 1967.

"STILL LIFE" — LATIFF JELANI 5C

RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle Club, under the direction of Mr. Carey, began with much enthusiasm in first term. The small bore range was set up for the year and rifles borrowed from the Cadet Stores. As the time given for activities was not usually sufficient, practice was extended for a short time after school. Safety was stressed and the proper handling of fire-arms demonstrated.

Although some of the guns were not accurate, good results were achieved with a little practice. All in the club have much better groupings and enthusiasm has grown and all in the club are looking forward to this activity next year.

Library Notes

Master Responsible : Mr. R. D. McMath

Librarian : Mrs. M. Humphreys

Library Committee : D. C. Atkinson, C. H. Griffiths, P. Ipkendanz, G. J. Riley, L. J. Sharp

During 1966 the Library continued to make almost all types of literature available to boys. Weekly withdrawals maintained last year's standard of 250 books per week, the latter figure excluding books drawn out by Leaving boys and members of staff. Leaving students continued to enjoy the privilege of Term Loans this year — a service which is not offered by many school libraries. The library purchased over 600 new books this year (including volumes from the Life World and Life Nature Libraries, and an eight volume set of the Waverley Book of Knowledge), increasing the Library's total stock to over 7,000 books.

The library is becoming a much more active institution, and is no longer just a building where books are kept. A feature of the activities this year was the introduction of a reading survey for the lower forms. Views and thoughts were obtained from 151 readers and the results indicated that the boys read with much discernment. The results were wholly successful, and it is intended to have a survey each year.

A set of facsimile documents covering important historic events were on display throughout the year. Among the selection of 11 documents were The Battle of Trafalgar, The Magna Carta, The Armada, The Mayflower and The Pilgrim Fathers.

Despite these favourable points mentioned above, the progress of the Library did not proceed unhindered. Even more so than last year, all those connected with the running of the Library fully realise that its size handicaps its efficiency. Serious thoughts are now being given to its expansion. Because the Library is too small, proper use cannot be made of the periodicals section, and the subscriptions were confined to those more essential.

A committee of five Fourth Year students assisted the Librarian during lunch hours, by performing duties on a roster system. Much willing assistance was gratefully received from younger boys.

A comprehensive range of pamphlet material was accumulated throughout the year and is readily accessible in a new filing cabinet.

Our hearty thanks must go to the British Information Office for their acceptable material, Mr. Brian Simpson for supplying us with regular issues of the Illustrated London News, and Mr. R. D. McMath, whose consistent interest is too often taken for granted.

So it is with hopeful expectation that we await the re-opening of a better and, more essentially, a bigger library in early 1967.

Chapel Notes

Although conditions for chapel services were the same in '66 as previous years, there were signs that Chapel is beginning to have a much deeper significance in the life of Hale.

The Old Boys have taken it upon themselves to raise the balance re-lift the quality of our worship for many years to come.

Each year Hale's traditions of worship deepen, and 1966 saw the development of an easy relaxed familiarity which has made our Chapel services more friendly and enjoyable.

quired for the building of our Chapel. There is a great deal of discussion as to its design and site — it is fine to see how important so many people associated with Hale consider the Church of God to be.

In third term Mrs. G. Craig, a most thoughtful and generous friend of the school, gave us an electric organ. It is an excellent instrument and will

The Chapel prefects, P. Dudarec, P. S. K. Duce and D. Wells, performed their duties well and everything was managed with wonderful smoothness — not easily accomplished under present circumstances.

Mr. McMath again played the piano and organ for nearly all our services. We are really appreciative of all he has done, and are sorry that he will not be in residence at a boarding house next year. Fortunately some of the boys are now quite competent at playing hymns and so we should have no trouble finding organists for a few years.

We are indebted also to our guest preachers — The Reverend J. Studd, P. S. Lawrence, P. Hodge, A. Lee, E. Simmonds, G. Stanley, J. Eley and Canon K. B. Halley.

When examinations occupied the Hall we viewed films from the Provincial Missionary Council, the officers of which have been, as usual, most co-operative.

The Archbishop conducted the annual confirmation at which twenty four candidates were presented:—

R. G. R. Anderson, M. W. Atkins, I. S. Beeson, P. L. Blake, W. L. Criddle, D. Cummins, T. M. E. Davis, G. E. Dungey, B. J. Eakins, L. Gray, A. K. K. Hyland, H. K. Hummerston, R. S. Lilford, R. A. Loveland, A. J. Mitchell, I. G. Mitchell, P. J. Morrison, P. G. Parsons, L. J. Peasley, G. S. Sandover, I. R. Sandover, M. Y. Sangster, M. J. Smallacombe and R. W. Smallacombe.

Providing new prayer books and confirmation service cards and kneelers for our increased numbers took a large part of our finance this year, but we were able to give $10 to the Provincial Missionary Council, $10 to Inter Church Aid and over $20 to the Archbishop's Discretionary Fund.

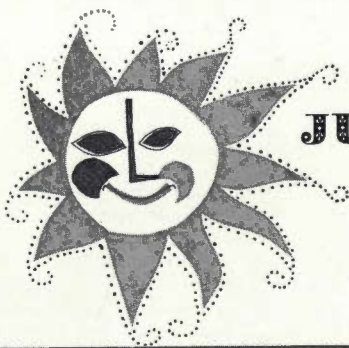

Attendance at Communion averaged about thirty six for each of the thirty three services held.

Charities Contributions

This year, due to the drive by the House representatives, collections have risen considerably. Consequently, the representatives decided to increase several donations and to contribute to the Doctor Barnado Centenary Appeal.

At the time of printing the amount raised was $545. The sum raised was distributed as follows:—

Red Cross	50
Save the Children Fund	100
Silver Chain	20
Paraplegics	10
"Daily News" Orphans' Appeal	50

JUNIOR SCHOOL Notes

On November 25th, 1965, the mothers of old and new boys enjoyed a morning tea at the Junior School. Mrs. Mill and Mrs. Strickland, with the assistance of the Junior School Boarders, were the organizers of this function. Parents were able to visit classrooms to see the children's work. The orchestra provided musical items which were very much appreciated by the visitors.

A four day camp at Point Peron was greatly enjoyed by all and ended the school year on a note of good fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp travelled down on the Wednesday for a concert at the camp. This was so successful that it is to be repeated again this year. The 1966 camp is to be a five day event.

On December the first a start was made in sinking a bore to supply water to the Brine ovals. The electricians completed the wiring early this October. All at the Junior School hope that eventually it will be possible to reticulate the lawns and gardens as the pump is situated in a convenient position for this to take place without a lot of extra expense. The boys have struggled to maintain the lawns and shrubs and with water readily available the task would be much easier. Some boys work at gardening during their hobbies period and L7 made an attractive fountain which testifies to their zeal and industry in this direction. All the boys from the various grades who have helped in any way in maintaining the lawns and gardens are to be commended for their efforts. More flowers and shrubs were planted on Arbor Day and many are becoming established. It is hoped that eventually each class room will have its own outdoor patio divided by shrubs from its neighbour.

During March an appeal for food for the Spastic Association was well supported and we thank the parents for their co-operation in making this a success. Each Friday a collection is made for charity. Parents are not expected to send donations for this; rather, the boys are encouraged to give a little of their own spending money. It is hoped that in this way the idea of keeping those less fortunate than themselves will be engendered in them.

The Inter-House Swimming Carnival was held on March 3rd, with Blue House emerging victorious over the other houses, who were very close together in points, only one point the difference between Gold, Red and Green.

Towards the end of March a new table tennis table was purchased for the L7 boys, the L6 boys gaining the older one. We have to thank the Tuck Shop mothers for their kindness in donating this equipment. It is greatly appreciated by all the boys. The Junior School has a wealth of equipment providing an outlet for whichever type of activity is desired by the boys. There is a badminton court, cricket sets, basketballs, soft balls, volley balls, footballs, quoits, two table tennis tables, climbing apparatus and a "cubby house" in the process of being built by fourth form senior boys. The library offers a congenial retreat for the "bookworms" and the music room may be used for piano practice or the practicing of other instruments. During wet lunch hours the television is turned on if a suitable programme is showing.

A new teaset was bought by the tuckshop mothers, for use at functions where school morning or afternoon teas are served.

The new teaset was used for the first time for the afternoon tea after the Junior School Inter House Athletic Sports, and was greatly admired by everyone.

Thank you to all the mothers who sent such a delicious afternoon tea along. All the boys enjoyed cakes and sandwiches in their rooms while parents chatted to one another in comparative peace. Each boy had a bottle of soft drink donated by Carl Vine who shared his birthday celebrations with his schoolmates in this way. Thank you, Carl!

Mr. Horner, the District Superintendent, paid his yearly visit in July. He was presented with a trinket box made by Bedbrook of L6 in the pottery class, and declared himself delighted with it.

Mr. Mill's football team went through the season undefeated except for a loss against Aquinas by 2 points. This was an excellent effort on the part of the boys who played and Mr. Mill, whose decisive comments from the sidelines kept their morale at a high level. All teams are to be congratulated for their fine efforts and good sportsmanship.

In the Inter House athletic Sports Gold House succeeded in winning the trophy for the highest number of points but not through lack of effort on the part of the other houses. Every boy took part and tried his hardest for his House.

In connection with their Social Studies programme, Grades 1 and 2 visited Mr. Atkin's "Stoneware, Pipes and Tiles" factory during first term. Here they saw the raw clay converted into pipes and actually stood inside a kiln. Each boy was given as much clay as he could carry to take home with him. Mothers must be praised for their forbearance during the following weeks when clay was being modelled and remodelled by their enthusiastic sons. In second term a dry cleaning factory was visited and in third term the zoo was the centre of interest.

During the August vacation Mr. Mill, Mr. Haskett, Mr. Harrison and Mr. Coney travelled to a Junior School's Convention in Adelaide where they attended lectures on modern teaching methods. The teachers are also attending weekly lectures on the new mathematics during third term. To do this, they go at night in their own time.

This year the library has been run by R. Taylor and J. Birman of L7. In the third term W. Saint and J. McCumisky of L6 have been learning how to carry out this task for next year.

Mrs. Mill and Mrs. Strickland have made a considerable contribution to the smooth running of the library by mending and sorting the books when necessary, and being available for advice when the librarians had any problems. The school has purchased a large number of new books to encourage reading for enjoyment and to implement a scheme of cross grading for the daily reading period. By this means it is hoped to considerably improve the weaker readers and to extend the more proficient ones.

Next year there will be a second class of seventh grade boys and a new room is being built on the western end of the school.

Mr. S. Sharp has worked hard with the brass band while Mr. Haskett has been training the boys in the use of the recorder. Mr. Stones of the Senior School is teaching the violin to some of grade four boys so that in future we hope to see some violinists taking their places in the Junior School Orchestra. At the moment the instruments represented are the flute, clarinet, piano accordion, recorder, trombone, horn, cornet and piano. A Junior School choir was trained by Mr. Stones. A very creditable performance was given at the Inter Schools Junior Choir Competition which was held in the Perth Town Hall in July. At present the boys are practising Christmas Carols for a presentation at the end of term.

The mothers who have assisted in the tuckshop are to be thanked very sincerely for their help throughout the year. The tuckshop committee in particular have devoted a great deal of their time to the school. Mrs. Atkins, Mrs. Hyland, Mrs. Mill, Mrs. Strickland, Mrs. Jeffrey and Mrs. Wright each attend the tuckshop for one day a week for the whole of the school year. Mrs. Wright took over from Mrs. Hammond during the year.

In addition to the previously mentioned articles, tuckshop mothers have also purchased two tenor horns and two cornets for the brass band.

THE SPORTS COUNCIL

This powerful body of boys young and old
Purely exists to do as it's told.
Up jumps a speaker, and addresses the chair,
His oratory now all present must bear.
The coaches in conflict, 'bout each other's worth,
Sometimes give rise to an outburst of mirth
Arguments follow, till patience expires, Time's running out, the meeting must close.
What it's established, no one quite knows.

DAVE BOYLE

A GRADE RUGBY — NOUMEA

Today I played my first game of Rugby here, which was, happily,
Rugby Union. I have never played
Rugby in more pleasant surroundings.
The ground seemed to be fenced in on two sides by mountains which were probably really 3-4 miles away.

I had rather a shock when I arrived on seeing soccer goals instead of Rugby posts but this was really the least of our worries, perhaps the greatest being the referee. The ground was almost unmarked and the only indication of most lines was a line between mown and unmown grass. It was obvious that they didn't want to mow the grass much because it was a cow patch.

THE CYGNET

The game commenced rather inauspiciously when one of our players kicked off while our team was 20 yards away, backs turned, discussing something. It was obvious that most of our team had not played before.

Very soon the other team were awarded a try and it was not until after the kick that ref. realised that the other edge of the mown patch was the goal line. So we all went back to have a scrum from which they immediately scored.

The incompetency of the ref. now became obvious.

You must have seen teams play on from a conversion attempt with 50 yards between the two teams. We did this and the ref. allowed play to continue. What a farce! I breathed a sigh of relief when he didn't allow our opponents' next try but was soon taken aback when they did score and he tried to make us kick off from the 25 yd. line. He was politely informed by spectators that play should be recommenced at the centre.

If a player didn't put the ball into a scrum or lineout straight, he simply ordered the same player to put it in again. He seemed blind to the most blatant off-sides and sometimes let players do punt kicks from the 25. For once I was not angry about a bad ref., only amused.

Welcome relief came in the 2nd half when a bullock came onto the field and charged our team. We charged back at it and it turned tail and fled.

The ref. ignored our claim that our opponents had carried the ball over their goal line and he ended by allowing them to drop kick from the 25 yd. line instead of awarding us a 5 yd. scrum. Playing $\frac{1}{2}$, which I didn't like, I found that the opposition was hopeless, proved by the fact that I made 2 breaks and only failed to score by mistaking the goal line as the ref. had done in the first half. But it was all fun at any rate.

ANYONE FOR TENNIS?

I watched Donald Bradman play cricket one day,

He saved the match in the easiest way.

At last my career I decided upon
I'd play cricket; just like the Don

Match day at Hale I faced up to bat, Clean bowled on the first — as easy as that.

"Oh! well," I thought, "That's not the end Next match every ball to the boundary quite rude.

A near-new bat and a ball I'll sell,
Very cheaply, of course; if you want

THE LEARNING YEARS

Our probing conversations,
With their gossamer explanations
Mingled thoughts alive afraid.
How we marvelled at the world we made

For Asia was a world we couldn't see
But we were young, our minds were free

And life was just a spattering
Of certain problems mattering.
The school room masked the life ahead

With history books of people dead,
And truths from formulae already known.

But then the firm conclusions,
In our theory of mankind
Stood still, fell flat: so soon to find we'd grown

For now the past lies quiet
Afraid to speak; afraid and blind.

ON THE EVE OF MY EIGHTEENTH BIRTHDAY

At the falling of the season,
I find the warmth of school has come to die;

I hear them all sing on.
But from my heart an inward cry,
Perplexed with change, My tongue runs dry; ideas gone
But time to think allows me freedom here,

To ponder over times to come.
I ask myself, has life begun?

Answers good and bad imply
I've found what's past will have to lie,

In waiting for another time,
When life reveals a kinder eye
To peevish deeds of younger years,
For now I work in solemn quiet,
My life to shape, myself to make.

—Mel.

BUT STILL AGAIN . . .

A dark ball of death Falls from the sky with its message of hate.

Sirens screech their warnings
raucously

As the last child hurries to the shelter:

But there is no hope.

A deafening noise splits the air,
A dense black cloud rises into the heavens.

No living soul can survive:
It is total destruction to the city.
Radiation spreads for miles around,
Roars of the explosion are long to die down.

Agony is soon relieved, death comes quicker.

Desolation stands alone,
Not one solitary sign of life remains.
Now as time creeps slowly by,
All memory of that day has gone;
Hopes of friendship are renewed;
But still again that day could come . . .

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Gentlemen,

It is with great pleasure I present to you the Annual Report of the Association for the year 1966 for your approval

Committee:

The usual monthly committee meetings were held and extremely well attended, with very active support from Past Presidents. I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the entire Committee for their support and co-operation during my term of office. Owing to an overseas transfer, our Vice-President, Mr. J. T. Deykin, was unable to occupy the chair this year, and I am sure that we shall all wish him well during his stay in the U.K.

Finance:

Our Treasurer is still smiling; consequently you may rest assured that our funds are in a reasonably sound position. Subscriptions are about normal; however, we would like to see a lot more of our members change to Life Membership.

Membership:

Transfers to Life Membership total 32 with 2 new Life Members.

Social:

Mr. R. B. Gregson and his committee have been most active this year. The following functions were held during the year:

Old Boy's Day.

Head of the River Eve Cabaret, in conjunction with the Parents and Friends' Association.

Head of the River Launch.

Annual Dinner and Reunion.

Winter Sports Day, Old Boys vs School at football, rugby and hockey.

Golf Day at Cottesloe Golf Club. Country Dinner at York.

Combined Old Boys' and Parents and Friends' Dinner Dance at the Regency Room, Cottesloe. Monthly Sundowners at the Adelphi and Wentworth Hotels.

These functions were almost all well attended. The P.S.A. Ball, for which we were the host School, was an outstanding success both financially and socially. The Combined Dinner proved beyond doubt to be the most popular and successful function of the year.

Cygnets Hall:

Once again our thanks go to Mr. R. L. Newman for his untiring efforts in keeping things going under most difficult circumstances. Please make his burden lighter by using the hall whenever possible. Ring Peet and Co. for all bookings.

The Old Haleian:

This year has seen 5 issues of the publication and our thanks go to Mr. Trevor O'Keefe and his committee for maintaining the high standard of our magazine.

Chapel Appeal:

At this year's Annual General Meeting it was announced that a small group of Old Boys, under the leadership of the Chairman of the Board, Mr. Q. R. Stow, has privately obtained promises of $40,000 towards the cost of a School Chapel. This group felt they could not expand their activities any further and consequently recommended to the meeting that your Association formally take over the group's responsibilities and conduct a Chapel Appeal.

The General Meeting approved this proposition and, as a result, the Association has appointed a Chapel Appeal Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Barry Sanders, a former Association President.

The Appeal Committee has almost completed preliminary arrangements and hopes to be actively engaged in fund raising within a few months.

It is the Committee's intention to reduce the work involved by forming syndicates to raise funds. I would ask all Old Boys to give their wholehearted support to this project when approached to donate funds.

The School:

The selection of an Old Boy, Dr. Ken Tregonning, as Head Master has met with wide spread approval, and we all wish him well.

During the past twelve months my close friend and former master, Mr. Drake, has ably filled the position of Acting Head Master, and I would like to take this opportunity of congratulating him on the progress that the School has made under his leadership.

I feel that this report would not be complete if I did not mention the extreme pleasure I experienced in presenting individual trophies on behalf of our Association to each member of the undefeated First XVIII. They were not only undefeated in the Alcock Cup but were also successful against Scotch College Adelaide and Geelong College at a most enjoyable Carnival held in the School Grounds prior to the beginning of Second Term.

This year as your President has been for me a most enlightening experience and I would like to thank all members of the Committee and Past Presidents for their untiring support and co-operation.

K. S. JONES,
President.

Old Boys in Profile

MR. LANG HANCOCK, is the man who discovered the huge deposits of iron ore in our North-West and the man who stands to make millions of dollars in royalties from this discovery. He discovered these deposits when, in 1952, he was forced by bad weather to fly low over the Hamersley Ranges. He recognised the walls of the gorge between the Turner River and the Ashburton Valley as being almost solid iron. Commenting on the fact that geologists had been flown over the area many times without noticing the iron, he said "all the big discoveries in Australia have been made by bushmen or prospectors".

Mr. Hancock is strongly anti-socialist and believes that Australia's future can be served by closer association with the U.S., Japan and Britain. He also believes that, in order to develop the north more rapidly, we have to create a set of conditions which will attract a huge flow of capital, both from within Australia and from overseas, which will in turn bring labour, attractive working conditions, etc. so that population and development will grow.

With regard to the future of North-west iron ore development, Mr Hancock said "we should regard ourselves as a frontier nation with great opportunities for pioneers. If this happens, I can't see any limit to our future". It is his contention that the sleepy ways of the old North-West as expressed in Banjo Paterson's verse "An Idyll of Dandaloo" are gone forever.

SIR EDWARD HENRY BRUCE LEFROY, (1887-1966) was closely associated with the pastoral industry and played a major part in the agricultural development of W.A.

He began his pastoral career as a jackaroo on Boolardy station and, by the age of 22, he was manager of Cranmore Park, a property which was later to be developed under his supervision into a wheat and sheep farm and a famous merino stud centre.

Sir Edward's interest in the application of science to agriculture (he was responsible for the introduction of a technique, in 1939, to prevent blow-fly strike on sheep) led him to become a member of the State committee of the CSIRO of which he was chairman from 1934 to 1943.

Among his other achievements were membership of the W.A. University senate for 12 years, assistance in founding the Institute of Agriculture at the university, and an honorary life membership of the Pastoralists' Association.

BRUCE BENNETT, the 1964 W.A. Rhodes Scholar, took part, with graduate students of many nationalities, in an experiment in international living carried out in the United States during ten weeks of his summer vacation from Oxford. He was the only Australian to be included in the party.

Bruce returned to Oxford early in October when he began study for a Bachelor of Letters degree in education.

THE HON. LESLIE CRAIG, M.L.C., C.M.G., a noted Old Haleian, passed away on February 9th of this year, aged 74. Born at York in November 1892, he was educated at Hale School and Church of England Grammar School, Melbourne. He served in the Great War, rising to the rank of Captain. He lost a leg at Gallipoli, but never let it detract from his enjoyment of life.

After the war, he returned to farming, and was a pastoralist at Dardanup for some thirty years. He also rose to be a company director. In 1937-38 he was president of the Royal Agricultural Society, of which he was made a life member. He was for many years a member of the Board of Governors of Hale School, and was chairman from 1957 to 1962. Many will remember him as an honest unselfish citizen who triumphed over a severe war disability and became universally liked and admired.
