

YOUNG HALEIANS' ENDEAVOUR AWARD

The Young Haleians' Endeavour Award is a unique opportunity for a young Old Boy – a 'Young Haleian' – to receive financial support of up to $5,000. The award is intended to assist a Young Haleian in pursuit of their goals and ambitions, no matter their field of interest.

Criteria

The Young Haleians' Endeavour Award will be presented to a Young Haleian who:

- Is under 30 years of age;
- Has shown a commitment to, and achieved (or is significantly advanced towards achieving), success in his chosen field of endeavour;
- Is able to demonstrate noteworthy accomplishments within their chosen field and have strategies in place to further progress towards a significant goal or ambition; and
- Exemplifies the values of Hale School.

About the Young Haleians' Award

The Young Haleians' Award was first presented in 2017 to Connor Delves (2008-13). Connor made a significant contribution to Hale School during his time as a student, receiving Symbols for Music (Choir and Ensemble), Service Learning, Football and Athletics, Colours for Academic Achievement and Honours for his real passion, Drama.

In 2014, at the age of 18, Connor moved to New York to commit to drama full time. After a couple of years of study, Connor was one of just 16 actors from around the world to be invited to join the 2016/17 Academy Company at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts.

Upon hearing of Connor's burgeoning career in early 2017, the Old Haleians Association was moved to assist him in the pursuit of his ambitions.

The Young Haleians' Endeavour Award has been established to assist other Young Haleians chase their dreams.
